U. S. Cruiser Colorado Goes Ashore

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 15.—Wireless messages from the U. S. cruiser Colorado, intercepted here, report that the cruiser is ashore near Double Point. A dense fog between Port Townsend and Seattle was responsible for her grounding. The cruiser is not making water and is expected to be floated at high water. Messages have been sent to Bremerton from the Colorado asking that the tug Navajo be sent to her assistance. The cruiser went ashore at 8 o'clock in a dense fog. The revenue cutter Arcata, Captain Hall, has gone to her assistance. Double Bluff is situated between Port Townsend and Seattle.

WIFE HAS TO PRAY FOR HER LIFE

Awakened by Awful Threat Woman Struggles Desperately With Fiend to Save Her Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15. — For over half an hour early today Mrs. Marie Pereida a delicate little Italian woman, struggled with her crazed husband who was endeavoring to cut her throat with an eight inch bread knife in their home on Nineteenth avenue. Two policemen, attracted by the piercing screams of the woman, broke in the door, disarmed and arrested Pereida after a desperate fight.

Mrs. Pereida was awakened by being dragged out of her bed by the hair and found her husband standing over her with a long knife, saying he intended to kill her and requesting her to say her prayers. The wife grasped his wrist and clung to it with desperation. He finally succeeded in wrenching himself loose and threw the woman from him. Then followed a chase through all the rooms in the house.

Policeman Quinn and Densen, broke in the door just as the exhausted woman had taken refuge under the bed.

In prison today Pereida declared that he had no recollection of attempting to kill his wife.

SCATHING REBUKE FROM CLERGYMAN

REV. TERRENCE CARAHER,
Who Declares the Moral Condition of San Francisco Is Worse Than at Any Previous Time.

Brothel-Keepers Privileged Characters Under Present San Francisco Officials

By Rev. Terence Caraher.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The district of this city known as the "Tenderloin" is in far worse condition than it was before the fire of April 18, 1906. Before the disaster, to be sure, we had all the fallen women driven down to Chinatown, but none were nearer than Jackson street. There was then no menace to the morals of the children at all.

Chief Dinan permitted the re-establishment of some of the places objectionable to me after the fire, notably 794 Pacific street. At my instance, however, he closed this resort. Now conditions are much worse.

I condemn very strongly the conduct of Chief of Police Biggy He is a very self-opinionated, stubborn man, and, as far as I can see, totally incapable of being the head of the police department of San Francisco.

CHIEF BIGGY'S DEAD LINES.

He has established what are called dead lines enclosing a certain district, and his action can be construed only as an invitation to the criminals of the world to enter that district and to revel in crime.

There is one point here I have exposed and I want especially to speak of. Chief Dinan and Mr. Ruef were indicted for opening and keeping open 714 Pacific street. Mr. Biggy openly sanctioned the running of that place as an immoral institution, the very thing for which the other men were indicted. I believe Biggy has laid himself open to indictment the same as the others.

CONDITION A FLARING DISGRACE.

Judge Dunne Overrules Demurrers Interposed by Graney, Coffroth, Britt and Schmitz to Indictments.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15. — Superior Judge Frank Dunne this morning overruled the demurrers to the indictments against E. M. Graney, J. W. Coffroth, Willis Britt and Eugene E. Schmitz in the so-called fight trust cases and continued them for one week to be set.

The defendant interposed demurrers on the usual statutory grounds of bias and prejudice on the part of the grand jurors, and the matter has been submitted to the court for some weeks. This morning's decision makes it necessary for the defendants to eventually go to trial.

The cases on the calendar in the same department against Eugene E. Schmitz and Abraham Ruef for bribery were continued respectively until August 22, and September 5. Those against M. W. Coffey and Andrew M. Wilson went over for two weeks, while those against former chief of police Dinan were continued until September 5.

ROB AND SHOOT AN OFFICIAL

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 15.—A special from Springfield, Ill., says Assistant County Treasurer W. H. Boone was caught and shot this morning by a band of infuriated negroes, after which he was robbed of money and diamonds. He was shot several times and will probably die.

MOB HOLDS UP TRAIN IN SEARCH FOR VICTIMS

4 KILLED; 70 ARE INJURED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 15---Troops are being rushed to this city from all parts of the state. Negroes are leaving by trains, on trolley cars and many of them on foot, and the mob spirit seems still to be rampant, although the Governor and militia authorities claim that they have the situation well in hand.

CLASH IS HOURLY EXPECTED

The First Infantry of Chicago was today ordered to mobilize at once and start for Springfield on the first train.

Despite the claim of the authorities that the mob is held in subjection there is every chance of another clash between the white and colored people. The negroes are well armed and are showing a spirit of determination. The white people are in an ugly mood and farmers and men from adjoining towns are constantly arriving.

Arousing the Negroes

A dispatch from Decatur, Ill., says many negro men who arrived today from Springfield are trying to arouse their people and are urging them to go back to Springfield and fight. Several of them have been arrested and weapons taken from them.

Unless the militia succeeds during the day in quelling the mob much more effectively than has been done up to the present time it is feared that the night will bring more serious trouble than has yet occurred.

Ready for Martial Law

By 6 o'clock tonight the First, Fourth and Fifth Infantry regiments will be in the State capital and the disturbed districts of the city will be under martial law.

The city is comparatively quiet at noon today, but the atmosphere is tense with suppressed excitement. The burned district and the wrecked Loper restaurant near Fifth and Monroe streets were meccas for sightseers by the hundreds. Sentries were posted thick about the show places and kept the crowds back from the negroes who searched the blackened ruins for traces of former possessions. Scores of poor families lost their all in the fires and their condition is such that the State has been compelled to come to their relief.

Governor's Orders

Governor Deneen issued orders this morning that all who desired assistance or protection from possible renewal of riots would be quartered at Camp Lincoln. The incoming troops will also be sent there and other measures will be taken to wipe out the evidences of the riots as quickly as possible. Such at least is the announced plan of the governor, who was too busy this morning to discuss the matter in detail.

"We mean simply to give full protection to the rights of every citizen," said the governor, who added, "no method by which this can be accomplished will be overlooked."

Police Helpless

The local authorities, too, have been working on plans for the prevention of additional trouble. There was little for the police to do, however, a few scattered personal altercations being the only evidences of disorder today. Just

ANOTHER VICTIM DIES

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Aug. 15.—John Caldwell, one of the victims of last night's riot, died today. This increases the death list to four. The doctors state another patient in the hospital is dying and Frank Delmore is given no chance by the surgeon. All three of these men were shot through the lungs.

SUPERVISORS WILL REMOVE BORCHERT

Receiving Hospital Steward to Be Dismissed From His Position

The official axe has been sharpened for Harry Borchert, who was defeated at the recent primary election in his aspirations for a seat in the State Assembly. Borchert will be removed from his position as steward of the Alameda County Receiving Hospital by the Board of Supervisors. This action will, in all likelihood, be taken at the meeting of the board next Monday, although it may be referred until a week later. That Borchert will be removed, however, is certain.

Many friends have interceded in behalf of the steward but the supervisors will dismiss him from his position. This action will follow closely the report of the Grand Jury censuring Borchert for several alleged irregularities; it will also be right upon the heels of Borchert's failure to win the Forty-eighth Assembly District.

The man who will be given Borchert's place has not as yet been selected, but will within the next two or three days.

HALSEY MUST APPEAR IN COURT FOR HIS TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15. — "I want Mr. Halsey brought into court next week, even if you have to carry him in on a litter."

Such was the statement made by Superior Judge Frank Dunne this morning when the case of Theodore V. Halsey, formerly outside man for the Pacific States Telephone company, was called for hearing.

Attorney Samuel Wright, in place of Attorney Bert Schlesinger, counsel for the defendant, who is on his vacation, pleaded for a continuance, saying that Halsey was very ill and unable to appear in court.

ORDERED TO APPEAR.

Judge Dunne then took occasion to say that Halsey had been operated upon a year ago for appendicitis and he thought he was taking a long time to recover. He said he would not allow a long continuance and wanted the defendant produced in court.

Attorney Wright offered to present a doctor's certificate, or to bring the defendant's physician into court, but Judge Dunne would not listen to the suggestion, and said Mr Halsey must appear next Saturday. He instructed the district attorney also to make an investigation.

"Very well, your honor, I will send out a physician," said Assistant District Attorney Cook.

"No, Mr. Cook," ordered the court, "I should prefer that a member of the district attorney's office make a personal investigation of Mr. Halsey's condition."

IT WAS A NIGHT OF TERROR. THE MAD MOB KILLING AND FIGHTING

Trouble All Started Over Negroes' Outrage Upon White Women; Developed Into Race War

City in Terror for Hours---Prohibition Candidate Chafin Bluffed Angry Mob and Was Hurt---Negroes Caught and Swung to Trees.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., August 15. — Two white men were killed and one negro lynched, more than half a hundred persons were injured and two score of houses, mostly occupied by negroes, were burned last night as the result of an attempt by a mob to lynch a negro who assaulted a white woman. After a night of riot, arson and slaughter, the State troops called out by Deneen succeeded in restoring a semblance of order.

MILITIA IN FORCE.

One thousand militiamen, including three companies of this city and companies from Bloomington, Decatur, Pekin and Pontiac, are patrolling the streets and it is believed further disorder will be prevented.

The rioting was precipitated by an assault committed early yesterday morning by a negro upon Mrs. Mabel Hatham, wife of a street car conductor. While the woman slept alone in her home on a populous resident street, waiting the return of her husband, the man broke into the house, dragged her into the rear yard and assaulted her.

ASSAILANT ARRESTED.

Before noon George Richardson, a young negro, was arrested by the sheriff's force, charged with the crime. The victim partially identified the prisoner. Crowds quickly gathered about the jail, but Sheriff Warner's forces and the police were able to preserve order until nightfall without difficulty.

Shortly after 5 o'clock a successful ruse was worked by the authorities and Richardson was spirited away to safety. With the assembled crowds held at bay by the officers, a false run by the fire department temporarily drew the attention of the crowd, during which time the prisoner was hurried down an adjoining alley and at the first corner was pushed into an automobile owned by Harry T. Loper, a restaurant keeper who had been sworn in as a deputy sheriff. Before the crowd realized what had happened, Richardson was being rushed to a point north of the city, where a Chicago & Alton train was stopped and he was put aboard, with a heavy guard, and conveyed to Bloomington and later taken to Peoria.

STABBED TO DEATH.

Along with Richardson was John James, another negro prisoner in the County Jail, who is accused of killing Clergy Ballard, a state mine inspector, after attempting an assault upon Ballard's daughter. Ballard went to his daughter's rescue and was stabbed to death.

Immediately after the darkness gathered crowds assembled in the vicinity of the County Jail. The mood of the masses was ugly and appeals by Sheriff Werner were without effect. The sheriff offered to let a committee from the crowd search the jail, assuring them that the negroes were gone.

"We will all go then," shouted some one in the crowd and the cry was taken up by hundreds.

CROWD BECAME MOB.

Then some one in the crowd mentioned that Harry Loper, the restaurant man, had furnished the automobile in which the prisoner had escaped.

"On to Loper's," shouted one man and by this time the maddened mob was ready for anything. A rush was made upon Loper's restaurant, five blocks away. The proprietor was warned, but failing to realize the seriousness of the situation did not attempt to escape until the mob was upon the place. He was pushed by employes of the place, together with his wife, into a basement room in temporary confinement.

DESTROYED RESTAURANT.

Short work was made of the restaurant. The automobile in which the rescue had been effected had been left in front of the place. It was quickly turned upside down and fire was set to the machine.

While the machine blazed frenzied hundreds poured into the cafe, tore fixtures and decorations from their places and piled them upon the blaze. Even the sideboards of the kitchen were stripped and all the tableware and dishes piled upon the blaze.

The fire department, which had been called out a half dozen times in efforts to disperse the crowds, again made a run to the restaurant but was powerless. Every line of hose that was stretched was cut before a stream of water could be forced into it. The restaurant was stripped clean by the mob, which worked without hindrance until its work was nearly completed.

MILITIA IS CALLED.

The local companies of militia, consisting of a company of infantry, a troop of cavalry and a gatling gun section, which had been ordered out by Governor Deneen early in the afternoon, was busy with the situation in the vicinity of the jail and the local authorities had no man to spare at the scene of the Loper restaurant. Finally in a desperate attempt to restore order, the cavalry troop was dispatched to the restaurant.

Then the rioting broke loose in serious form. Shots were fired and the air was filled with missiles. Many fell in the melee and it was here that Lewis Johnson met his death. After the mob had moved to other scenes Johnson's body was picked up in the rear of Loper's place. After nothing of Loper's place remained for the infuriated crowd a rush was made for the levee, which is usually populated with negroes. But most of them had disappeared.

MOB SECURES RIFLES.

Attacks were made upon several buildings in which it was believed negroes had been secreted. Entrance was forced to these places and stocks of merchandise turned topsy turvy in the search for the refugees.

Shortly before midnight the mob broke into Fishman's pawnshop and secured a quantity of rifles, shotguns, revolvers and ammunition. With these the men armed themselves and started to march the streets in absolute control of the situation.

CHAFIN DEFIES MOB.

"Stand back, gentlemen, or I'll shoot everyone of you who touches this man," were the words of Eugene W. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for President, who faced a mob that had attacked a negro where Mr. Chafin was delivering a public address on the east side of the square last night.

For his act Chafin was struck on the left side of the face with a brick hurled at him by a member of the mob.

Chafin was well along in his speech when a negro, pursued by a mob, came toward the speaker's stand from Fifth and Washington streets, where he had been pulled from a street car.

The crowd closed in on the negro, beating him with their fists and clubs. He finally got away and jumped on the platform.

BLUFFED ABOUT GUN.

It was at this point that Mr. Chafin stepped in front of his mob, put his hand to his hip pocket and threatened to shoot any one who touched the negro. Mr. Chafin's threat had the desired effect although he had no weapon.

During the fight the negro pulled a knife from his pocket and slashed several white men. Mr. Chafin was not seriously injured.

James Scott was struck by a stray bullet and almost instantly killed. After burning many houses in the negro quarter the mob, which became more and more desperate as the night passed, finally gratified its thirst for blood this morning at 3 o'clock when Charley Hunter, a negro, was lynched at the corner of Twelfth and Madison streets, right in the heart of the district called the "Bad Lands." Troops arrived at the scene too late to prevent the lynching. Some of the members of the mob declare that the negro lynched had shot two white men. When retreat was cut off, the negro is said to have opened fire, wounding two.

Then came the cry, "Get a rope."

LYNCHED THE NEGRO.

All the members of the mob eagerly took up the cry. The negro was caught and dragged to the street. Here he was shot five times and a rope thrown over the limb of a tree in front of the store. With a cry of satisfaction the negro was swung high over the ground. He was dead in a few minutes.

After riddling the body with bullets, the mob commenced to dance around the tree. At this point a company of troops from Decatur arrived and commenced firing, causing the rioters to disperse in a hurry. By daylight the streets had practically been cleared and the troops were in control of the situation.

LOPERS BRAVE ACT

Harry T. Loper, owner of the restaurant destroyed, said:

"I have been through one riot in Cincinnati in 1883, the greatest in this country, when one hundred men were killed. It was to avoid loss of life that I took those men out of town. I did not favor the men; I have no interest in them whatever and would go just as far to punish them as any body, but after going through the Cincinnati riot and knowing this sheriff as I do, I know he would be killed first before he would let the jail be taken. I thought I would save lives by removing the colored men.

"I would not shoot a single man to protect my place and I only shot when I thought I was in danger. I would not kill a single man to save my place."

TROOPS CALLED OUT.

Following are the companies of State troops called out to suppress further rioting. Companies G and L, First Infantry and Company L, Fifth Infantry, all of Peoria; Company C, Fifth Infantry; Troop D, First Cavalry and the gatling section, all of Springfield; Company C, Fifth Infantry; troop D, First Cavalry and the gatling section of Springfield; Company F, Third Infantry, Pontiac; Troop G, First Cavalry, Peoria and the following companies from the Fifth Infantry: B, Taylorsville; A, Pekin; C, Bloomington; F, Quincy; H, Decatur; I, Danville and L, Peoria. Bloomington, Peoria, Pekin and Decatur companies arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning.

STILL IN JAIL.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Aug. 15. — Richardson and James, the negroes brought from Springfield last night to escape lynching, are still in jail here occupying separate cells and nobody has been allowed to see them.

To avoid the possibility of a pursuit from Springfield, it was announced that the men had been transferred to Peoria and the officials here still persist in the story. There has been no excitement here.

MOB ARMED AND VERY UGLY

Stole Traction Car to Search for Negroes Accused of Crime

Only Hope Now Is a Strong Show of Force on the Part of the Militia of the State.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 15. — A special from Springfield, Illinois, says:

Negroes are swarming back into the east end, heavily armed, and a worse reign of terror is expected tonight. A newspaperman was caught going up an alley and was driven back to his office by the negroes who were in turn driven away by a large crowd of white people.

MOB HEAVILY ARMED.

Officers and militia are powerless. Soldiers' arms have been taken away and appropriated to the use of the mob. Whites are also coming from the nearby country to help in the race war, and thousands of men are swarming the streets. The whole business portion of the city is just as demoralized as the east end and many of the larger stores have closed to avoid trouble and loss by fire, raids and robbery.

Citizens are leaving and women and children are departing on every interurban car and train for places of safety.

The blacks are just as determined as the whites and there promises to be an awful night unless the troops show more power and restore order.

SEARCHING FOR CRIMINALS.

The negroes were removed from Bloomington last night on the 9 o'clock interurban train bound for Peoria. They have not been located this morning and it is thought that they have been taken off at some small town. The Illinois Traction system cars in this place were taken away from the officials last night and a mob started for Bloomington on them, but found that the negroes had been removed.

Four are now dead, many whites are missing and it is known that scores of negroes have been dragged away wounded and dying.

NEGROES FLEEING.

A special dispatch from Decatur, Ill., says frightened negroes from Springfield are fleeing through this city and have been coming in on trains, interurban cars and by wagon all night and morning. The women and children are seeking places of safety while the men, looking for trouble, are trying to arouse their people here to go back to Springfield with them and fight. Several have been arrested and weapons have been taken from others.

While not looking for actual trouble the local police and the sheriff are preparing for any emergency as the town is rapidly filling with refugees.

Ordered Off Streets

The city officials have already warned lawabiding citizens to remain off the streets after nightfall. Sheriff Werner, however, was in receipt of information that the riotous element was preparing a fresh attack on the negroes of the city. It was this circumstance that led him to ask Governor Deneen for the extra

3500 MILITIAMEN TO GUARD CITY

By This Display of Force the Authorities Expect to Quell Any Further Rioting in Springfield.

CHICAGO, August 15.—The First Regiment of Infantry, Illinois National Guard, was this morning ordered to proceed immediately to Springfield to assist in preserving the peace of that city.

The call to arms was immediately promulgated by Colonel Sanborn and a telegram was sent to Governor Deneen, stating that the regiment would leave Chicago on an afternoon train.

Major-General Young, who is in command of the Illinois National Guard, received the following message from Governor Deneen at 9 o'clock, and afterward talked with the Governor over the long-distance telephone:

"The governor told me that the situation at Springfield today was well in hand, but in order to guard against any further riotous demonstrations, I thought it well to make an imposing display of military force," said General Young. The First Illinois will take a special train and arrive in Springfield this evening. We are proceeding on the theory that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. With the arrival of the First Illinois there will be at Springfield three regiments of National Guard men, numbering about 3500 men and officers.

IMMORALITY WORSE UNDER REFORM

speak of are an utter disgrace and should not be tolerated by the city of San Francisco. I have said before that crime was never more rampant nor morality at a lower ebb than at present. This district that Mr. Biggy has established here is the stronghold of criminals, the stronghold of thieves, assassins and thugs, from which they sally forth to waylay, rob and murder.

A case in point is that of Thomas Waters, a parishioner of mine, who was shot by a negro who tried to hold him up while he was returning home two weeks ago last Sunday, and he is now lying on a bed of pain at St. Joseph's Hospital.

BROTHELS SANCTIONED BY POLICE.

Returning to the subject of these immoral brothels, I want to repeat that I believe Biggy openly sanctioned the very thing that Dinan was indicted for, and I think that the latter should be restored to his duties, be his rank that of corporal or any other position.

Dinan and Ruef are said to have received money from the immoral houses. When I spoke to some of the parties in power about the comparison between the acts of these two men and Chief Biggy, they replied that Dinan and Ruef had received money.

DIVES FLOURISH AND SPREAD.

Now, while I don't approve of the accepting of money for such a purpose, still the reception of money, and the forcing of the dive keepers to pay money, prevents the spread of such houses and the multiplying of the women. Whereas now, no money being demanded of them, they are allowed to flourish and spread.

I am interested in saving the souls and bodies of the children of San Francisco and, together wtih several others, I called twice upon Mr. Biggy. The second time he acted so uncouthly and discourteously that I can never bring myself to go and see him again.

WILL EXPOSE ATTORNEYS.

There are certain parties, among whom are two prominent attorneys, whose names I will expose later, engaged ostensibly in the purification of San Francisco, who are my greatest enemies in the crusade for virtue and who opposed me in open court and endeavored to keep open the brothels, and even took large fees for defending them.

TWO CLAIM THE SAME HUSBAND

Women Who Assert Their Right to Call Fireman Husband Glare at Each Other in Court.

Two women, tall, shapely and in all more than usually attractive, one a blonde and the other a brunette, both of whom claim the same man as their husband, sat on opposite sides of a table in the police court this morning and glared each other out of countenance during the trial of D. J. Coakley, a driver for the fire department, on a charge of failure to provide for a minor child, preferred against him by a woman giving the name of Corinne Conkley of 5695 Park street. She charges Conkley with brutality, deception and failure to provide the necessities of life, while the other woman, the brunette, the first Mrs. Conkley, sat at her husband's side in a warm-hearted endeavor to lighten the burden of the accused.

TEARS AND SMILES.

During the whole morning session there were tears shed by the blonde, while the brunette smiled. The court room had the appearance of an afternoon sewing bee, a number of women being in attendance. One side of the court room was well filled with friends of the first Mrs. Coakley, who in whispers expressed the opinion that the blonde woman "had her nerve" for trying "to steal" another woman's husband, while the other side of the room was dotted with the female friends of the accusing mother, who declared that the brunette "had her nerve" for supporting the actions of a man who had left her and become the father of a child by another woman.

IS SERIOUSLY ACCUSED.

In making her complaint on which the warrant was issued for the arrest of Coakley, Mrs. Corinne Coakley declared that she had been married in Santa Clara county and had never known up to recently that he already had a wife. She declares that if she is not legally married to Coakley she was deceived by him, as some sort of a ceremony was performed. She declared that she and the fireman had lived happily together until after the birth of their child. Then, she declares, Coakley pleaded with her to agree to a legal separation in order that he might go back to his first wife. Upon her refusal to accede to this request, she declares, Coakley struck her in the face, breaking her jaw. Coakley then left her, she declares, and has since refused to support her or the child.

After a short session of court this morning, during which but little evidence was introduced, an adjournment was taken until August 21.

Girl Abducted at Point of Revolvers

BUTTE, Mont., August 15.—Miss Freda Bauer, aged 16, daughter of Conrad Bauer, a rancher living twelve miles east of Billings, was abducted Thursday night at the point of revolvers by two masked men. There is no clew to her whereabouts.

Bauer accuses two ranch hands, both lovers of the girl, who have also disappeared. The abduction was cleverly effected. The men rode up to the ranch, called Bauer out and covered him. Mrs. Bauer ran screaming down the road to a neighbor's. Shortly after, the men rode off. When Mrs. Bauer returned the girl was gone, spirited from the rear of the house, evidently by a third member of the party.

WIDOW SAYS 'FIGHT' TO VAN LAAK

Pretty Mrs. Allen Resists Ejectment From Home and Files Notice of Appeal.

Lydia Earle Allen, the attractive widow who captured the heart of Lambert Van Laak, the San Francisco capitalist, at a summer resort last year, and who has since been living in a beautiful home provided by him at 1423 Regent street, Alameda, this morning filed a notice of appeal in the suit for ejectment recently instituted by Van Laak. Superior Judge William H Waste granted a stay of execution for twenty days, in order to allow Mrs Allen time to prepare her appeal before being thrust from the home which she has occupied for so many months.

The first intimation of a disagreement between Van Laak and the fair lady who had entranced him came in the form of a $2,000 suit for breach of promise led by Mrs Allen. The complaint of Mrs Allen alleged that Van Laak had promised to marry her and had given her the use of the house on Regent street, pending the wedding day. The retired merchant, in answer to the suit, stated that he had never proposed to the charming widow, but had merely let her live in the house as a token of his esteem and admiration.

EJECTMENT PROCEEDINGS.

Shortly after the filing of the breach-of-promise suit, Van Laak commenced an action of ejectment against Mrs. Allen, petitioning that she be ordered from the house which he had loaned to her. This suit was decided in favor of the capitalist some days ago, but Mrs. Allen declares her intention of carrying the matter to the Supreme Court if necessary, claiming that the property is hers by gift.

MISS LEONA TISCH IS CHOSEN QUEEN

MISS LENA TISCH,
Elected Queen of Idora Carnival.

CARNIVAL CROWN WILL BE WORN BY OAKLAND BEAUTY

Miss Leona Tisch is elected queen of the Idora Park carnival. Her victory was by no means a hollow one, however, for the final night of the queen contest was productive of the heaviest voting ever known in a popular contest in this city. Thousands of votes were cast for all the leading candidates and the ballots were so evenly distributed among the leaders that it was not apparent until the entire count was made what the outcome would be.

A CLOSE FINISH.

When the counting of the votes commenced last night it was apparent that the race would be very close for first honors. For a time Miss Tisch ruled a pronounced favorite, but then the votes began to come in thousands for Miss Watson, Berkeley's candidate. Miss Hartz, Miss Robinson, Miss Whalen, Miss Hughes, Miss Cooper and Miss Galvin, and in smaller numbers for the other candidates. Just before midnight, however, a batch of 5000 votes was cast for Miss Tisch, and this gave her a lead that the others could not overcome.

HEROINE WAS SECOND.

The totals showed Miss Mabelle Watson, the beautiful heroine of the Columbia wreck, to be second on the list and Miss Annie Hartz of Oakland to be third. Miss Vera Whalen, also of Oakland, was almost tied with Miss Hartz for the third position. Miss Edna Robinson, Miss Jennie Hughes and Miss Georgie Cooper of Oakland finished in the order named, and Miss Loretta Galvin, Fruitvale's pretty candidate, was not far behind.

A POPULAR QUEEN.

Miss Leona Tisch, the queen-elect, is one of Oakland's prettiest and most popular girls. Her large circle of friends rallied loyally to her support when her candidacy was announced, and they clipped coupons until their hands are weary and their fingers are worn. But the victory is theirs and it is a popular one. And on Monday night all Alameda county will salaam to Queen Leona, the beautiful ruler of the carnival.

There have been more beautiful girls entered in this year's queen contest than ever before, and Alameda county has justly acquired the reputation of being the home of the fairest women in California, famed throughout the world for the loveliness of her daughters.

WILL BE CROWNED MONDAY.

The coronation of the queen will be held at Idora Park on Monday night.

The final result of the queen contest follows:

Miss Leona Tisch, Oakland	26,956
Miss Mabelle Watson, Berkeley	24,182
Miss Annie Hartz, Oakland	21,891
Miss Vera Whalen, Oakland	21,813

CALIFORNIA RIVALS NEW YORK, SAYS PARKER

Former Democratic Candidate Returns From Trip to Yosemite Valley.

MERCED, Aug. 15.—Judge Alton B. Parker, former Democratic candidate for President, and Delancy Nicoll of New York arrived here this morning, returning from their Yosemite trip.

A large delegation of citizens met them at the train and escorted them to the park, where Judge Parker made a short address.

"I believe the time is not far distant," said Judge Parker, "when New York will be closely rivaled by California as the empire State."

The speaker touched briefly on politics, denouncing what he called the trend of the administration toward the centralization of power in the federal government. Judge Parker and Nicoll left at 11:30 for San Francisco, where the former will make a political address this evening.

KNOCKED TO STREET BY THUGS

Two Citizens in Different Parts of San Francisco Brutally Beaten by Bold Hold-Up Men.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, August 15.—Two armed and masked men held up and robbed two belated citizens in different parts of the city at an early hour this morning and in each case beat their victims and in left them in semi-conscious conditions on the street.

At 2:30 a. m. today James Darwin, a coachman from San Jose, who has been staying at the Central Hotel, 674 Third street, was walking on Commercial near Sansom street when a short, thick-set man, wearing a mask and carrying a revolver, stepped out of the shadow and called upon him to throw up his hands, at the same time pressing the revolver against his stomach.

Darwin hesitated to comply with the request and the robber struck him with the butt end of the weapon and he fell to the street. The thug went through his pockets and took $35 in gold, a diamond ring valued at $50 and a stickpin valued at $45. With a parting warning to his dazed victim to make no noise, the robber fled in the darkness.

Policeman T. Casey found Darwin and had him removed to the Harbor Hospital for treatment.

KNOCKED DOWN.

Just as he was about to enter his home at 611 Howard street at 12:30 o'clock this morning, Sidney Jessett, a gardener, was struck down by a revolver in the hands of a footpad whom he described as being about five feet nine inches in height, of dark complection and wearing a dark suit. He was robbed of $50 in cash. He was so stunned by the blow that he was unable to realize what had happened until the man had made his escape.

Jassett staggered to his feet and started in the direction of a drug store on Third street, meantime trying to stop the blood which was flowing from two deep wounds on his scalp. On his way he encountered Policeman L. Meyer, who had him conveyed to the Central Emergency Hospital. He was treated by Dr. Tillman, and is being held for observation as it is feared his skull is fractured.

MAY BE MEMBER OF THIEVING GANG

John Millett of 814 Twenty-ninth street is under arrest at the city prison on suspicion of being a member of a gang of thieves who have entered and robbed several homes in the past few days. A few days ago he reported that his room had been entered and $50 stolen. The police were not impressed with his story and on searching his room found jewelry stowed away in a trunk which answers to the description of that recently stolen from Letty Cavellera, another roomer in the house. Millett is charged with grand larceny.

TOLD OF ACCIDENT TO HIDE WHEREABOUTS; POLICE SAY

Pittman Letter to Cousin Declared Hoax by Authorities.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The police last night announced that they are convinced that the letter, which Miss Edna Stilley received Thursday declaring that her cousin, John L. Pittman, had been injured in an automobile accident was a hoax written by Pittman himself in an effort to conceal the fact that he had left the city for Pittsburg.

The police assert that the friendship between Miss Stilley and Pittman had caused an estrangement between the man and his wife, who is Miss Stilley's cousin.

The authorities announce that they are about to drop investigation of the case.

United States Revenue Cutter Seizes Mikado's Ships Illegally Fishing in the Northern Waters.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—A despatch was received by Acting Attorney General Russell from the District Attorney at Valdez, Alaska, saying that the captain of the steamer Dora had arrived at Seward and reported the revenue cutter Bear on July 22d seized two Japanese ships close to the north east point to North Point, St. Paul Island, presumably for alleged unlawful sealing.

The vessels are the Hund Maru and the Saki Maru, it being stated that the former was disguised. Mr. Russell stated that while the despatch does not state that the vessels were engaged in unlawful sealing, no one could have been no other reasons for the seizure.

Fresno Girl Elopes In Dead of Night

FRESNO, Aug. 15.—Nellie, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Summers of this city, at midnight last night stole from her bedroom and eloped with Lee Warren, aged 22, a medical student whose parents are wealthy Ohio people. The girl's father was absent last night. She retired with her mother and elder sister at 11 o'clock. While the others were sleeping she quietly packed her suit case and stole out of his house, meeting her lover, who came up from Long Beach on the 12th inst., and who had arranged the elopement by correspondence. The two met at Long Beach recently. The couple are thought to have gone to San Francisco.

Train Is Robbed of Engine by Bandits

SPOKANE, Wn., Aug. 15.—Bandits held up the Northern Pacific westbound passenger train last night near Trent, nine miles east of Spokane, drove out the engine men, uncoupled the mail car and locomotive from the rest of the train and then themselves ran the engine and mail car to Yardley, in the outskirts of the city. A special train, with officers had gone to the scene.

It is not yet known whether the robbers got away with much loot.

GOV. DINEEN ON THE BIG RIOTS

Trouble Is Near Lincoln's Old Home

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 15. — Governor Deneen this afternoon issued the following statement:

"The trouble at Springfield arose out of an assault upon a white woman by a negro named George Richardson, who, it is alleged, entered the home at midnight, August 13, choked her, carried her to the back yard and assaulted her during the absence of her husband who was a conductor on the street railway here. About six weeks ago another colored man named Joe James was found in the daughter's bedroom of the home of another conductor of the street railway company on the return of the family from a social engagement and after the discovery and struggle to escape, killed the father.

"The scene of the riot is within half a mile of the old homestead of Abraham Lincoln, the only residence ever owned by the martyred President. The house is now the property of the State.

"A monument there marks the grave of the emancipator, a statue of him stands in the capitol.

FEARED TROUBLE.

"Fearing troubl the sheriff yesterday induced the proprietor of one of the principal restaurants, Mr. Loper, to take the prisoners and the sheriff in his automobile to the outskirts of the city and to transfer Richardson and the other persons referred to to Bloomington, about sixty miles north of Springfield.

"There was some uneasy feeling among certain classes at Springfield yesterday afternoon, but it was presumed that knowledge of the transfer of the prisoners to the jail of another county would end the trouble. A large crowd gathered at the jail in the evening and there learned Mr. Loper had furnished the automobile with which the prisoners were transferred. They went over to his restaurant, demolished the plate glass and furniture, sacked the restaurant of its liquors and turned the owner's automobile upside down and set it afire.

LOOTED PAWNSHOP.

"The crowd then moved east on Washington street, to the quarter of the city which is largely populated by colored people and known as the levee. Here they sacked the stores owned by colored persons and one pawnshop. They also burned a number of houses estimated at between twenty and fifty. Only such buildings were burned as were occupied by colored people.

"Negroes on the street were assaulted and one was killed and later one was hanged to a lamp post. The negro was killed while trying to protect his home from incendiaries who had gone to the front door and shot into the crowd. As reported in the newspapers the killed numbered three and the injured fifty-eight.

CARING FOR REFUGEES.

"This morning at 2 a. m. I issued a public statement to the effect that the colored families who had been driven from their homes would be cared for at Camp Lincoln. The soldiers are erecting tents there now and all who are in fear of danger will be accommodated at that place and guarded by the soldiers.

"We are prepared to meet any further trouble that may arise. A few assaults have been made during the day but have not been serious. The community, however, is in a state of unrest."

INCINERATOR IS GIVEN THOUGHT

Berkeley Improvement Clubs Consider Number of Sanitary Subjects.

BERKELEY, Aug. 15.—The incinerator problem was brought up for discussion at the conference committee of Improvement Clubs by President Victor A. Robertson, who read an article concerning the success of the Seattle incinerator.

Methods and plans were discussed in an informal way but no definite action was taken.

The proposed plan of San Francisco to establish a system of municipal collection of rubbish and the question of suitable location for the incinerator site in Berkeley was discussed. Winfield Schmidt contended that the most logical place for the site was on the water front. The problem of handling and disposing of cans and other non-combustible matter was also discussed. It was the contention of some members of the committee that a law should be put into force calling for the separation of combustible and non-combustible matter.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines, which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately, I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by all druggists.

TRAINS ON TIME DESPITE STRIKE

Canadian Pacific Maintains Its Schedule Although Thousands of Men Are Out.

VANCOUVER, B. C., August 15.—There is no change in the situation created by the strike of the Canadian Pacific Railway machinists. A small force of men remain at work in the shops and there has been no deterioration in the rolling stock.

Trains arrive and depart on schedule time. Neither side gives evidence of yielding and apparently present conditions might be maintained for some time. Reports frequently made that Japanese are at work are not verified and Canadian officials refuse to make any statement regarding the situation or their future policy concerning Asiatics or any other class of labor.

BLOODY BEATING DISFIGURES MAN

About ten o'clock this morning H. Miller, a junk dealer, staggered into the county receiving hospital covered with blood, and stated that he had been the object of a vicious attack made upon him at Second and Jackson street; a few moments before. Miller declared that the attack was entirely unprovoked, his assailant having leaped at him while he was bartering with two boys for old iron.

While Miller's bruises were being treated by Steward Harry Borchert, a young Portuguese named Joe Maderas, walked into the operating room and asked that a slight wound on his forehead be bandaged. Miller denounced Maderas as the man who had assaulted him and the latter was removed to the city prison by Detective Green.

Miller's wagon, which was lost in the excitement attending the trouble, was found later tied to a post. The wounded man will appear against Maderas in the police court on Monday morning. His injuries consist of lacerations about the face and head and a severe concussion at the pit of the stomach, where he claims he was kicked by Maderas.

WANT BERKELEY SEWERS TO REACH DEEP WATER

BERKELEY, Aug. 15. — The complaint of the residents of West Berkeley in regard to the sewer situation was taken under consideration by the conference committee last night, and it was the general opinion of the meeting that something should be done to bring about an extension of the mains to deep water. A committee composed of G. B. Ocheltree, George Robertson and Louis Overstreet, was appointed to investigate the situation and confer with the board of town trustees

WED AFTER 30 YEARS' COURTING

Amasses Comfortable Fortune in West While Waiting to Claim Fiancee of His Youth.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 15.—As the result of the development of a romance of thirty years standing John Reinecker, aged 66, and Mrs. Minni Hopp, aged 58, were married yesterday by Judge Elmer Johnson.

The romance dates back 30 years ago, in the State of New York, where the couple first met. Reinecker has been a thirty-year resident of Alameda, coming here directly from the East, and was followed by his then bride-to-be. Since that time he has amassed a comfortable income, which will enable the happy couple to enjoy their declining years.

HOUSEKEEPER IS SCORED BY HEIRS

Relatives of John Drusedom Contest the Deed Given to a Faithful Servant.

Three disinherited heirs to the estate of John Drusedom, a pioneer who died in this city on June 5, this year, have filed a petition in the office of the county clerk requesting that a deed made by Drusedom in favor of his housekeeper, Maggie Mann, be cancelled by the court. The deed, which gives to Mrs. Mann practically the entire estate of her former charge, was made by the aged man on April 28, 1908, a few months before his death. It gives to his housekeeper the house and property at Ninth avenue and East Nineteenth street and all of the personal property which it contains, the entire value being approximately $6000. Anna Waterman, Walter G. Drusedom and Clarence Drusedom, who are protesting against the deed, claim that their relative was of unsound mind and body at the time of signing the deed and did not intend to dispossess himself of the title to the property.

Passed Bad Check and Goes to Prison

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15. — Edward D. Fritsche was this morning sentenced by Superior Judge Lawlor to a term of two and a half years in San Quentin penitentiary for forging and successfully passing a fictitious check for $18.

Fritsche, who is a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, claims the check was forged by another man and given to him. He admits, however, and pleaded guilty to the charge of passing it on J. Parlotes, a grocer of the Mission district.

Owing to the fact that he had not been convicted of any offense before and had apparently been a hard-working man, the court imposed a light sentence.

FOSS REFUSES TO PROSECUTE ASSAILANT

ALAMEDA, Aug. 15. — Renault Kobb, a carpenter, was arrested here yesterday and booked on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, on a complaint of A. Foss, who claims that Kobb hit him over the head.

The case came up at Justice Tappan's court this morning but Foss failed to prosecute.

MODERN METHODS IN BOTTLING BEER

The bottling is one of the most important of the processes which result in placing on your table a perfect beer.

The bottling-house of the John Wieland Brewery is equipped with the most modern machinery, and operated on the most scientific lines.

In this bottling-house the beer — properly sterilized and aged — is put into bottles nine times cleansed — a precaution worthy of the product of perfect hops and hardy golden barley.

It is impossible to brew a better beer. To bottle beer better is equally impossible.

Each month a handsome safe, containing $100 will be given away by the brewery.

You get a key with every box of one dozen quarts or two dozen pints of Wieland's Beer, purchased in San Francisco, Oakland or Alameda, and if any one of the keys you receive will unlock the drawer within the safe containing the money, it is yours, the $100 and safe, too.

One safe is on exhibition at Brown Bros. & Co., 864 Market street, next to the Chronicle; the other at the store of the Hub Clothing Co., Eleventh and Broadway, Oakland.

Wieland's Beer is a home product for home use, and costs you no more than ordinary beer.

CLAUDIANES BROTHERS KEPT UNDER CLOSE GUARD

Wealthy Uncle of Oroville Retains Lawyers to Aid Nephews

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The arrival of Peter Claudianes has caused a flurry and a flutter in the city prison, the like of which has not been seen since the days of rioting attendant upon the car strike of 1907.

Sergeant Coogan, captain of the prison, and his nine assistants are kept busy in keeping the two brothers, alleged to have been implicated in the blowing up of "Big Jim" Gallagher's Oakland houses, from communicating with each other. The two Greeks are kept in opposite sides of the prison, and no one is allowed to see them.

NO WORD SPOKEN.

John was not informed that his brother had arrived and great care is being taken in preventing communication by means of the three trusties who are allowed the freedom of the floor. One of the guards accompanies the trusty who serves meals to each of the prisoners and no word is allowed to be spoken.

Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning District Attorney Langdon, accompanied by Detective Goff, hastily took Peter up to court to answer to the charge of criminal conspiracy. Attorney J. W. Scott, who formerly appeared for John Claudianes, announced that he had been retained as counsel together with Attorney Nathan Coughlin. He asked for a continuance until Monday for arraignment but Judge Shortall would not consent to this and accordingly the alleged dynamiter was instructed as to his rights and arraigned on the charge.

SET FOR MONDAY.

The case was then set over until Monday, when a definite date for trial may be decided on.

Attorney Scott asked that bail be fixed but was informed that the bond, $10,000 had been named at the time of the issuance of the warrant. District Attorney Langdon was uncommunicative, and both he and Detective Goff shielded their prisoner so that it was impossible for the newspaper men to get a word with him.

Scott and Coghlin were retained by Nicholas Eustathiew, a wealthy Greek rancher of Oroville, who is an uncle of the accused Claudianes brothers.

Langdon personally represents his office. Special Agent Wm. J. Burns declares he has "an absolute case against Peter."

MANY SOCIETY PEOPLE AT MOTHER GOOSE FETE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15. — The Mother Goose fete which was given today for the benefit of the Hill Farm attracted a large number of people from this side of the bay and proved to be both a social and financial success. It took place in the grounds of Henry E. Bothin's beautiful country place, which he generously placed at the disposal of the patronesses. The program which was under the direction of Mrs. William Hamilton of Mill Valley, was most interesting and amusing, being arranged principally for the children, who were in the majority. Mrs. George Pinckard and Mrs. Porter Ashe presided at the tea table, which divided honors with the lemonade booth, conducted by Mrs. Frank B. Anderson. The Misses Foster and Miss Louise Boyd sold most tempting candies and Miss Frances Martin was surrounded most of the afternoon by the excited and enthusiastic children, who awaited their turns to penetrate the mysteries of the grab bag. Mrs. Emory Winship and Mrs. John Martin contributed the music, which in the open air was heard at a great distance and was the means of inspiring and attracting many visitors, whose contributionus were gladly given to the worthy cause.

SPRECKELS POLITICAL HOLD-UP

Forced Willis Polk, Architect of His Bank Building, to Help Finance League Campaign.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The story that Rudolph Spreckels sandbagged Architect Willis Polk out of $250 to promote the campaign of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League is being given the widest possible circulation by the enemies of the head of the league.

As is generally known, Polk is the architect of the new Federal Trust or First National Bank building, at Post and Montgomery streets. The head of the corporations erecting the beautiful structure is Rudolph Spreckels. So Spreckels is in a sense a direct employer of Polk.

In making up his campaign fund for the Lincoln-Roosevelt League campaign, Spreckels sent a letter to Polk, as well as to others of his friends, requesting a contribution for the campaign.

SPRECKELS' DEMAND.

Polk was not in sympathy with the Lincoln-Roosevelt League. He also has no great amount of money to devote to politics, and so he paid no attention to the request for a contribution to the campaign fund of a cause he did not favor.

Just as the campaign was closing he received a letter, said to have been something to the following effect:

"Willis Polk, Esq.—Dear Sir: On such a date you were sent a communication requesting your contribution to the campaign fund of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League. You have not replied to that communication. I shall expect to receive your check for the amount of your contribution before 3 o'clock this afternoon. Yours truly,

"RUDOLPH SPRECKELS."

POLK'S REPLY.

This made Polk sit up and take notice. It also made him "mad" clear through. He looked upon the letter as a hold-up, pure and simple—a demand based on his position as an employe of Spreckels. So he sat down and wrote, according to the story the Herrin men are telling, something in the following sarcastic and generally cussed vein:

"Rudolph Spreckels, Esq.—Dear Sir: In response to your letter of even date I am sending you my check for $250 for the campaign fund of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League. I do not believe in your cause and shall vote against your ticket at the polls. If you feel like keeping my check under these circumstances, why do so."

Polk's check was not returned.

GOSSIP FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO WEEKLIES

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

The divorce proceedings of the former Miss Patterson of Chicago against Count Gizycki of Vienna, Paris, Rome and St. Petersburg have been temporarily discontinued until the Countess regains her three-year-old daughter, Felicia, whom she alleges her husband kidnaped from London, where Miss Patterson took refuge with her father. There was an unusual element in this international hitch-up insofar that, despite the twenty years' difference in their ages, there was every reason to believe that this "love match" was a genuine one. The Count is remembered as a manly, athletic sort of a fellow, with no more vices than most, and better than the average. The wind-up was painfully trite; within a year the Countess discovered that her precious individuality was too high strung to brook European customs. Her parents seem to know their little daughter's tantrums, because, strange to say, they have taken the Count's part throughout, and have done everything to effect a reconciliation. The Countess remains haughtily incompatible, however. Count Gizycki is connected with the courts of Vienna and St. Petersburg through several lines. He is now being sought for in both these places by his irate spouse. She is the granddaughter of the late Joseph Medill, owner of the Tribune, and she was a prominent society girl of Chicago before her marriage.—The Wasp.

CAUGHT IN THE OCCULT WAVE.

An occult wave is vibrating in the fashionable suburbs, and though the men wear their auras rather rakishly over one ear, many of the women are seriously trying to put their soul vibrations in accord with the eternal harmonies of the occult. Several months ago an Indian "doctor" came as a guest to the old Mills place near San Mateo. The present tenants of the place and their friends found balm for their sorely perplexed spiritual outreachings in the mutteral teachings of this Red Man. Some of the less psychic villagers hinted that he would "shake with Destiny for beer" or shuffle a greasy poker pack as diligently as his brother, "poor Lo." Whether the occult wave which now reaches from San Jose to Burlingame had its beginning at this place is a matter of conjecture, but at any rate a great many people down that way are now dabbling in the occult, and it is the fad to "visualize in color." As money is the most cherished commodity in all fashionable precincts, the majority are cultivating a green haze in front of their eyes, as that verdant shade is said to perceptibly fatten one's bank account.—Town Talk

CALIFORNIANS IN NEW YORK.

Arthur Cahill, who formerly made drawings for San Francisco newspapers, tells of an incident characteristic of the value placed upon Western talent by the New Yorker. One evening Mr. Cahill chanced to meet one of the Sunday editors of a New York morning newspaper. The man happened to be in his cups.

"Hello, Californian!" exclaimed the inebriate editor, "I am a curiosity to you."

"Not at all," replied the artist. "They sometimes get that way in California, too."

"But I am a successful newspaper man, yet I never saw California," explained the editor.

Metropolitan journalism and art have certainly absorbed a great many Californians.—The Wasp.

FLUTTER OVER A WEDDING.

Apropos of Ross Valley, there is a pleasant little flutter there over the announcement of the engagement of Miss Pauline Duncan and Richard Girvin. Miss Duncan has but recently returned to her Eastern home after a lengthy visit in Ross, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Griffith, and it was there that the attachment cemented into the expected engagement. Mr. Girvin has but recently returned from the Eastern home of Miss Duncan, where the announcement was officially made. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Girvin of Menlo Park, and a nephew of Mrs. George Pinckard and Edward L. Eyre. The wedding will, at the earliest, be celebrated after the Christmas holidays, and more than likely will be postponed until next June.—News Letter.

GOVERNOR BUDD'S ESTATE.

According to the items mentioned in the holographic will of the late ex-Governor James H. Budd, the property consists of but $40,000. Governor Budd's fee in the Fair case alone was verey large, and he figured in other important cases. His widow, who before her marriage was Miss Inez Merrill of Stockton, is the sole legatee, as they had no children. Mrs. Budd is now well on in years. She never cared much for society, but is a scientist of considerable reputation. Back of the Budd home in Stockton is an observatory, where Mrs. Budd makes her astronomical observations. She has lately been writing a series of articles on astronomy for one of the magazines and has written several works on New Thought and Christian Science topics. Mrs. Budd, Sr., the mother of the late James Budd, is also a brilliant woman. She was Miss Nathan before her marriage. The Budds have lived for years in Stockton, and one of the younger members of the family, Mrs. Hodgkins, is a prominent society leader. She was Miss May Budd before her marriage.—The Wasp.

FLUFFY RUFFLES ON THE SPOT.

Laundry bills are the fences which people with abbreviated incomes find difficult to climb. But up on the McCloud river a well-known young matron found a way out of her difficulty. A woman and her lingerie are soon parted in a modern laundry and so householders who can afford it have established laundries in their homes. The convenience of this is obvious in remote country places, but in few establishments is one conducted on the scale of this country home on the McCloud. A Frenchman and his wife, imported straight from the province where blanchisseuses are the chief article of export, are installed in the laundry and the house guests in this hospitable home do not have to send their fluffy ruffles to San Francisco to be tubbed. A young matron recently arrived at the place, followed by several more pieces of luggage than usually accompany a visit to the mountains. Soon there was a chattering and a babble in the laundry that reached the kitchen and passed on to the maids, who not only whispered it to their mistress but to the other house guests. The canny young matron, having heard of the laundry, had been saving up her elaborate peignoirs and all the rest of the hand embroidered things for weeks and had brought them there to be laundered!—Town Talk.

WHAT IS THE LESSON?

What is the lesson to be read by the people from this primary election? Is it conclusive evidence that the people do not want the direct primary, or that the people have indorsed the interference and manipulation of politics by so-called machine men? Neither. It is simply a rebuke for the Spreckels machine and the rebuke is administered in the city because it is in the city that the Spreckels machine is best understood. "The people want results," as the Call says in an idiotorial or the American navy last Wednesday, and the prosecution has given no results in any of its endeavors. It has invaded nearly every branch of civic activity. It has plunged factional warfare in the house; it has created schisms and it is still busy fomenting trouble and spuming scandal and all to no purpose, except the blackening of the reputation of San Franciscans and the spreading of the shame of California abroad, through its continual maladministration of the office of the District Attorney. It was this incompetence the people rebuked.—News Letter.

RUDOLPH'S MUSINGS.

The musings of the Hon. Rudolph Spreckels on Tuesday last have been translated into verse for his particular edification:

I am a King today,
But what of tomorrow?
Let it be as it may,
I am a King today;
Yet who knows but my way
Leads to sadness and sorrow,
I am a King today,
But what of tomorrow?
—Town Talk.

THE BUSY BIRD.

Again one hears of that busy bird, the stork, and this time his presence is expected shortly in the mining camp in Arizona where Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kruttschnitt have made their home since their marriage last September. Mrs. Kruttschnitt was before her marriage that fascinating little maid, Marie Pickering, younger daughter of the Fred Pickerings, and one of the most winsome and talented girls in society. Little Miss Pickering, though still in her teens when she became a wife, had already demonstrated her ability with her pen and had contributed some very creditable articles and dramatic criticisms to one of our local papers. She and young Kruttschnitt had been boy and girl lovers since their childhood days, and although their engagement had been announced no one thought of the marriage being celebrated for a year or two anyway, when, one morning, young Kruttschnitt, who was visiting in San Francisco, and Miss Marie announced to the elder Pickerings that they had decided to marry that day, and marry they did, not even awaiting the return of the bride's only sister, Rhoda, from the mountains, where she was visiting friends. The young couple have lived in the Arizona mining center since their marriage, as the young husband is a mining engineer. Although their surroundings are of the crudest, they have been exceedingly happy, and are anticipating the stork's visit. Mrs. Kruttschnitt mere is keenly interested in her grandchild, and will convey the doctor and a nurse from Chicago in her favorite car.—The Wasp.

HIS CURIOUS HALLUCINATION.

The guests of one of our suburban hotels were afforded much amusement last Sunday morning by the predicament of a popular young army officer. He arrived at the hotel the night before in an automobile with some gay companions, one of whom was a very vivacious young woman, whom he registered as his wife. In the calm of the Sabbath morning the hallucination was dispelled. The spirit of romance had departed, storm clouds blackened the prospect; strongly contrasting with the Sabbath calm was the violent manner of the young woman, who caused something of a disturbance. The officer, realizing that it was all a mistake, sent the young woman home and then undertook to have a correction made in the hotel register. It was his desire that the hotel manager should be undeceived. Indeed he was most keen for an amendment, but he was sadly disappointed. According to the testimony of the registor this gallant officer is no longer a bachelor.—Town Talk.

COMFORT FOR WOMEN SMOKERS.

Society smokers will be interested in the fact that Queen Amelie of Portugal is an inveterate smoker. She carries a supply of her favorite cigarettes about with her, an exquisitely flavored weed. The Queen is in poor health, but this sad state of her physical being is not laid, so far as I can gather, to her devotion to nicotine. The Queen's mother-in-law is said to have a detestation of tobacco. Her husband and her son, the late King Carlos, indulged in black, strong cigars, and so impregnated the atmosphere of the royal palace with their pungent odor as to make Queen Maria an opponent for ever after. When the tsaritsa first went to Russia she had no idea of what the taste of tobacco was like. Soon, however, in accordance with the custom of the Russian court, she took to smoking cigarettes, and now consumes no inconsiderable number each day. Her majesty is not an inveterate smoker, like the dowager empress, for she can discontinue the habit at will. The Queen of Roumania avers that she has never thought out an idea for a story or a poem without a cigarette between her lips; her majesty considers nothing could be more efficacious for soothing her nerves; and "Carmen Sylva" possesses a particularly nervous temperament. The Dowager Queen of Spain, like Gertrude Atherton, is a firm believer in the soothing power of tobacco, and in its use as an aid to clear thinking. In the days of the regency her majesty decided most of her intricate problems of state with the help of a dainty cigarette.—The Wasp.

"THE ONLY WAY" AT THE JINKS.

One of the best cartoons at the Bohemian Jinks dealt with the recent Hotaling-Miller episode. It portrayed Dick Hotaling seated on a high stool scowling with a threatening, melodramatic thunder-look at Henry Miller, who was seated on a high stool opposite returning the menacing glare. Each had a murderous looking pistol in hand, while loaded blunderbusses leaned beside them. In the middle-ground reposed a money bag marked "$14," and above it stretched a huge sign on which was chalked in bold relief, "The Only Way."—Town Talk.

MOST UNUSUAL ENGAGEMENT PRESENT.

A most unusual engagement present was that which Harry Cooper sent to Miss Edith Jones from Siam. His first thought was to procure for his fiancee a fine ruby ring, but, being unable to obtain a perfect gem of that kind in Siam, he presented to Miss Jones a beautiful pale-pink satin dress, of Oriental design and embroidered with silver, in the Indian fashion. It is a very expensive and graceful costume, for which Mr. Cooper had sent to India. The silver trimming is not like that used by dressmakers in our country, being of the pure metal. Unfortunately, when the fair recipient of this precious gift went to the custom house to obtain the testimonial of regard, she found that she had to pay duty to the amount of $200 to our heard-hearted relative, Uncle Sam, who has not the slightest consideration for the tender feelings of engaged couples. Miss Jones is also wearing a gold medal which King Edward presented to Mr. Cooper for valuable services rendered in connection with the Department of Forestry in Siam, which has charge of the immense teak forests of that country. Mr. Cooper is attached to the department.—The Wasp.

THE CROCKERS' FRIDAY EVENING.

Although there has been no fanfare of drums and tooting of horns about it, a really important event marks the week. This Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crocker are giving a dance at the Burlingame Club in honor of their debutante daughter, Ethel Mary. Miss Crocker has not, like so many other girls of recent years, been allowed to go to the junior dances and other amusements patterned after the gayeties of the oldsters. Her time has been spent in close application to her studies and in travel, and when she does enter society it will not be with a zest somewhat dulled by similar juvenile excursions. The dance, this Friday, is by no means a formal coming out, as I understand that that event will take place in New York, winter after next, and will be personally conducted by Mrs. Alexander. The presence here of her nieces, Harriet and Janet Alexander, is the motive power that urged Mrs. Crocker to give the dance. The Alexander girls are still the house guests of their cousin, Miss Jennie Crocker, who is entertaining a large week-end party, the guests all having been invited to the dance. As Ethel Crocker has spent most of her school time East or abroad, she has not any particular chums in society, and the guest list for the dance simply included all the younger set in the ultra exclusive set.—News Letter.

REPORTED ENGAGED.

Friends of Grove L. Johnson, the well-known attorney and State politician and father of Hiram Johnson, are congratulating him on his engagement to Miss Alice Hassett, daughter of former Mayor Hassett of Sacramento. Miss Hassett is a remarkably bright young woman with many friends. For a long time she acted as private secretary to her father and relieved him of a great many of the details of his public and private business. She is very popular in Sacramento society. Grove Johnson has taken part in some of the biggest California law cases, has represented the State in Congress and, is one of the best known Sacramentans.—Town Talk.

NOT AS IT USED TO BE.

Professor Herrick of Chicago, author and college instructor, was very popular when he lectured at summer school in Berkeley two or three years ago. Any number of society girls from this side of the bay used to cross over to catch the intellectual pearls that he cast before them at summer rates. But should he venture into these parts again society would turn a frigid shoulder toward him. For Mr. Herrick has written a book, and of course every one who knew him out here thought it would make such nice fun-mock reading. But, instead, Burlingame sat bolt upright with indignation. Actually two of the most disagreeable married pairs ever trotted out with a pen might have been taken from their set! Could it be that the gentleman from Chicago pigeon-holed a couple of types while he was out here?

However, no one really feels the bite of his most bitter accusation, because the charge is not seasoned to the depths in our palate. Mr. Herrick finds the society woman most lacking in the qualities of true motherhood. Whatever disagreeable criticisms may be voiced against the brand of society woman we exploit out here, neglect of children cannot be listed among them. Large families are not considered hopelessly middle-class in our most fashionable sets, and even very young mothers have a standard about the care of their children which lifts them above reproach.—News Letter.

ANOTHER HOBSON HEARD FROM.

Bernard Shaw, in "Man and Superman," impolitely asserts that woman is the pursuer, man the pursued. According to Mrs. Edna L. Hobson, the Irish-English dramatist is correct. In the case of her recreant husband and a bewitching blonde, named Mrs. Nellie Kyle, with whom Hobson recently eloped in Washington, Mrs. Hobson said Mrs. Kyle's pursuit of her husband beat all records. On one occasion, in Hobson's efforts to escape the charmer, he drove his buggy over her. Yet in spite of that rebuff the unwooed one kept on loving and pursuing, and finally triumphed. Hobson fled with her, and the police nabbed the pair. The old story of Joseph and Potiphar's wife is mild compared with this. Hobson the much-chased is a cousin of Hobson the much-kissed, who has so many friends in the smart set here.—The Wasp.

ANENT A GIRL'S DANCING.

Should a girl dance at a private house with a man to whom she has not been introduced? This is one of the questions now agitating French society, and if it hardly rises to the level of a social problem in America, it is because the American girl settles such questions for herself, dances with whom she wishes, and recognizes les convenances only to the extent of ignoring them at her own sweet will. But the French girl is still subject to direction and allows such questions to be settled for her by social and domestic authority.

But even the French girl is tentatively taking the bit between her teeth just by way of experiment and to find out how far she can go in braving the mysterious dangers supposed to await the unchaperoned and the unintroduced. Mme. Juliette Adam laments that men are now so scarce at private parties that the old-time rules must be relaxed if there is to be any intercourse at all.—Argonaut.

NEW GRETNA GREEN.

Society papas and mammas will do well to keep a sharp eye on Martinez these days. It used to be San Rafael that was favored by eloping couples, but the Contra Costa county seat has usurped the position formerly held by that of Marin county with society elopers. Martinez, by the way, has some very pretty girls in its own smart set. Postmaster Glass has a beautiful daughter, and John Swett, who used to be prime factor in the girls' high school here, has a very charming granddaughter. In the Tinning family is a lovely daughter, a leader in the younger set of Martinez, and there are some others among the old county families who possess handsome daughters.—The Wasp.

HOTALING VS. MILLER.

The town has not yet ceased to talk of that spirited tilt between Dick Hotaling and Henry Miller. The affair has brought out the interesting information that Henry is not always a person of the angelic temper which he seems in his pink-lemonade plays, so dear to the hearts of the matinee girl. The stage mechanics of San Francisco theaters in which Henry Miller has played regard him a good second to Richard Mansfield as a constitutional kicker. They do not fear him, however, as they did the famous impersonator of Beau Brummel, who was a terror to stage hands as well as the bad actors in his generally wretched company. Stories are told of Mr. Miller's tearing his hair and hurling large chunks of very vigorous English at everybody around him when the scenes were not set properly or telling lines were mangled.—The Wasp.

THE REPUDIATION OF SPRECKELS.

It is to be hoped that the Hon. Rudolph Spreckels and his pigstye journalists have derived from the results of the primary election an indelible impression of the sentiment of the people of this city and State with respect to their patriotic pretensions. The vote—especially in this city—was distinctly a repudiation of Mr. Spreckels' gumshoe methods in politics, as well as of his conduct as the head and front of the nauseous and infamous graft prosecution. It was a luminous manifestation of protest against the behavior and personality of a man who is believed to be arrogant and vindictive and who appears to have requited the trust and confidence of the people by substituting his own selfish ends for the legitimate ends for which he had been fortified by public sentiment, converting the city government into a personally conducted machine, bringing scandal upon the judiciary, injuring the reputation of San Francisco abroad and plunging the whole community into bitter factional strife. The result of the primary election was heavily charged with humiliation not only for Mr. Spreckels, but for all who have been identified with him in his discredited enterprise. There can be no question as to the sentiment expressed at the primary. The issue was clear and there was no ambiguity in the verdict.—Town Talk.

FOUND A BRIDE IN STOCKTON.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Marie Glenn, one of the prettiest of Stockton's younger belles, and Ralph W. Weymouth, a clever young architectural engineer of San Francisco, is the culmination of a three months' acquaintance and wooing. Mr. Weymouth came to Stockton in connection with plans for the new half-million dollar hotel which Stockton is building—and that settled it. The wedding will take place in the early winter. It is to be a church affair with Miss Lucille Budd maid of honor and Mrs. B. J. Powell matron of honor. Miss Glenn will be a beautiful bride. She is rather petite and has superb coloring, a combination of brown hair, blue eyes and peachy cheeks.—Town Talk.

THE DIMMICK CASE.

Some of President Wheeler's warmest admirers were filled with grief last week when they read in the papers that he had petitioned his friend Mr. Roosevelt to pardon Walter Dimmick, convicted of larceny, and now approaching the wind-up of his term in the penitentiary. According to President Wheeler, there is grave doubt of Dimmick's guilt. Unquestionably Dimmick's guilt was not established to the satisfaction of everybody, but it was established by Detective William J. Burns, a gentleman whose sponsors enjoy the system and confidence of the Berkeley philosopher. Detective Burns worked up the case against Dimmick, and now to question the guilt of the prisoner is indirectly to reflect discredit on Detective Burns. For no man is so well qualified to judge of the guilt of an accused person as the detective by whom all the evidence is gathered. Detective Burns, as we know, does not employ the most approved methods in procuring convictions. His methods are not the methods best adapted for ascertaining the truth. Whether he was so zealous in the Dimmick case as he has been in other cases, I do not know, but I quite agree with President Wheeler that there is grave doubt of the prisoner's guilt. Dimmick was charged with having stolen many thousands of dollars from the mint, but he had no money to use in his own defense and his wife and children have been in great poverty and distress ever since his arrest. There are many who say that the man who stole the money was not arrested.—Town Talk.

TAILOR-MADE WOMAN IN FASHION.

Do not trouble your modiste to fashion you a directoire gown. Do not tell your tailor to send his bill—you have done with him. Make friends with the latter directly, for the tailor-gown, severely plain, simple and refined is to be the correct wear this winter. The tailor-made gown in San Francisco would never, at any time, be quite banished. It has always been the favored apparel of the refined and modish woman of society. Mrs. Frank Carolan never looks better than in tailor-gowns, nor does Mrs. Joe Tobin. Most of our society matrons never wear anything but standard tailored suits in the street.—The Wasp.

ANOTHER EPISODE.

Another episode of the Jinks more or less indicative of the atmosphere occurred at the dinner on Saturday night. The central figure of this episode was the Hon. Frank Dunne, famous for his catch-as-catch-can bouts with the rudimentaries of the law. This distinguished judicial officer from the bulwarks of the bench with no adventitious or supervenient circumstances to lift him above the general, presented in appearance not less tuneful than that of Rozinante's rear. Apparently he was not in touch with the spirit of the occasion. In the heart of a merry rollicking throng he was as isolated and lonely as a solitary survivor on a desolate island. Presently this pathetic figure caught the eye of a little group of good fellows and some one remarked that the Judge seemed to symbolize evil tidings at a wedding breakfast. One there was in the group who took pity on him, and to rouse him from his dejected state and indicate to him the avenue to mirth and pleasantry addressed him in a glad, inviting tone. Startled out of his sombre musings the Judge sat up, took notice, smiled and extended his hand to him by whom he had been addressed. Thereafter he seemed to extract a little joy from the festivities. The man by whom the Judge had been addressed and to whom he extended his hand was Tirey L. Ford.—Town Talk.

LEFT SOME MONEY AFTER ALL.

The local papers called attention to the poverty of Helen Dingeon, who passed away recently at the German Hospital, but devoted little space to the distinction she won as a singer. As a matter of fact, she did not die in distress, as the newspapers represented. Her will discloses that she left some $7000, part of which was bequeathed to her mother and part to Mrs. John Kreling, who proved such a devoted friend during the last years of the invalid's life. Though Miss Dingeon made money fast in the palmy days of her stage career, from $100 to $300 a week, she spent it freely, and this gave color to the report that she had very little left. But she had been taught a valuable lesson by a close friend and long ago several safe investments were made which she firmly refused to draw on. These investments helped in a great measure to lighten the sick burdens of herself and her mother during the past few years.—Town Talk.

EXPECTED ENGAGEMENT.

I understand that the next engagement to be announced will be that of a paymaster on the California and an attractive blonde who has since the earthquake been living in Santa Barbara. Before the fire their beautiful home in Van Ness avenue was the scene of many delightful parties.—The Wasp.

WILL BE MARRIED ABROAD.

Mrs. Caroline Green Noble left this week for New York en route to Rome, where she will meet her daughter, Miss Cara Pickens Noble, whose wedding will take place late in October to Victor Kohnk, a wealthy German of Hamburg. Miss Noble is a granddaughter of the late General Duff Green. Mrs. Green, the grandmother, was Miss Rebecca Pickens, daughter of General Pickens of South Carolina, and also related to the Calhouns. Edward B. Noble, brother of the prospective bride, is associated with his father, Patrick Noble, in the Pacific Rolling Mills of this city. Miss Noble left California for New York several years ago, where she perfected herself in the languages. Later she was sent to Rome, where she represented and established the Institute of Social Service, which has gained a world-wide reputation. Recently she rented a house in Rome and established a Co-operative Woman's Club in touch with clubs of Berlin and Paris for wandering women who have no homes. Queen Margarite is very favorably impressed with her work along these lines. Miss Noble is still in her early twenties and has had a notable career abroad for one of her years. Mrs. Noble will return to California after the wedding in October.—Town Talk.

FURNISHES BRIDES FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

It amounts almost to grand larceny the way San Francisco chaps are carrying away Stockton's society girls. The list even for very recent years is a long one. Beginning this past month and going back just a little way there was Jean Read, who became Mrs. O'Higgins; Anna Fyfe, who is the bride of Bishop Hamilton's son; Sue Nicol, who became Mrs. Robert Hayes Smith and is now on her way to Europe; Jeannette Gillis, who is Mrs. Alexander Bryant; Mabel Thompson, who is Mrs. Edward Haas; Blossom Simon, who became Mrs. David Steiner; Carra Cobb and Georgia Bogue, who became the brides of Frank and Harry Long; Hedwig Rosenbaum, who had but one short year of happiness as Mrs. Julius Israel and became a widow and a mother at about the same time; Gertrude Elliott, one of our bachelor girls and prominent musically, became Mrs. James Littlehale; she, by the way, is a cousin of Miss Glenn, the pretty bride-elect before mentioned. Miss Ewing is now Mrs. Harry Marsh; one of the Welsh girls, Grace, became Mrs. W. E. Elliott some years ago, and now her youngest sister Maud's engagement has been announced to another San Franciscan, Mr. Dutton. There are others who "left their happy homes" for San Francisco, but the ones mentioned are among the most prominent and more recent. Stockton boys have tried to balance accounts by "importing" brides, but not in anything like a compensating ratio. John Fisher went to Illinois, Howard Hammond to Kentucky and Jo Peters and Fred Reid to San Francisco for brides.—Town Talk.

MRS. POTTER PALMER'S FRIEND.

Mrs. Lucille Fairchild Fernald, who was quietly wedded at Martinez last month to Robert Masson Smith, and didn't announce the fact until a month later, was not a runaway bride. Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild and a few intimate friends of their daughter were in the secret of the motor trip to the Contra Costa county seat. Quiet weddings have become almost a fetish in the smart set of late, and Miss Grace Llewellyn Jones is regarded as a public benefactress because she decided upon a real church wedding for hers. Mr. Smith's bride, by the way, is a dear friend of Mrs. Potter Palmer.—The Wasp.

The TRIBUNE'S EDITORIAL PAGE W. E. DARGIE PRESIDENT

Lawlessness Judicially Upheld.

In the Burns contempt case Francis J. Heney vehemently urged Judge Lawlor to repudiate the rule of law that an accused person is presumed to be innocent till he is proved guilty. This principle is imbedded in the common law and is fundamental in the jurisprudence of every civilized nation on the globe save in the code of France, which is still inquisitorial in its treatment of persons accused of crime. Judge Lawlor dutifully accepted the Heney dictum that the presumption of innocence is a relic of barbarism. The incident merely emphasizes Heney's contempt for the law and Lawlor's slavish subserviency to the Spreckels private prosecution. But, it may be asked, what is the use of putting the State to the expense of trying cases before judges who openly defy and disregard the law, and who do so in the full knowledge that the higher courts will nullify the whole proceeding as illegal. Heney attacked a principle of law that has been for centuries the boast of English and American jurisprudence in an effort to justify illegal misconduct on the part of William J. Burns with veniremen who will be summoned as talesmen in the graft cases, and Lawlor accepted this contention and purged the guilty persons of contempt. Lawlor laboriously argued that the extraordinary conditions prevailing in San Francisco make it impossible to select jurors in accordance with the statute. So he kicks the law out of court and virtually licenses tampering with men who are to be called as jurors. The excuse for this business will be the threadbare statement that Ruef is a crook and Calhoun bought the trolley franchise. And the public will be asked to approve of courts of law proceeding in an unlawful manner and sanctioning acts which vitiate and destroy the validity of judicial process. Whether the presumption of innocence is wise or unwise, it is the law of the land, and neither Heney nor Lawlor has any authority to abrogate it. Elementary code provisions and established rules of judicial procedure were set aside by Judge Dunne in the Schmitz case, hence the trial proved a nullity. Now Heney is going over the same road with Ruef before Judge Lawlor, well knowing that a conviction secured by the methods he is employing will be worthless. If he really desires to send Ruef to the penitentiary, why does he continue to defy the law and judicial precedent? Why does he not proceed in accordance with statutory direction instead of quarreling with the law and arguing with Dogberrys on the nisi prius bench to disregard the plain letter of the penal code? He knows perfectly well that neither courts nor prosecuting officers have power to alter, abridge or repeal the statutes which define their powers and the mode of exercising them. He is well aware that the Legislature alone possesses the power to change the law and prescribe the method of its enforcement. Yet he persists in a course of conduct that renders nugatory his questionable successes and flatantly justifies his failures by denouncing the law and impugning the integrity of judges who permit themselves to be governed by it.

Charter-Making and Consolidations.

Protest is made against the haste to frame a new charter for Berkeley at this particular time, on the ground that it is wiser to wait till the question of creating a consolidated city and county government, embracing Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Piedmont, Fruitvale, Melrose and Elmhurst, can be threshed out. A number of property-owners insist that giving Berkeley a new charter will fasten on that community more firmly the existing dual government, a system that is both expensive and inefficient.

Their contention is sound. There is only one way to increase the efficiency of the local government and lighten the burden of taxation, and that is to abolish the half-dozen municipal organizations within the urban district on this side of the bay, which is one city in everything but name, and consolidate the several divisions into a city and county having one set of officers.

The extravagance, waste and inefficency for which the parochial system of government is responsible cannot be eliminated by making new charters. Organic laws, however, wise and well intentioned, cannot abrogate conditions nor alter the basic principles of economy. Within this urban district, which is as compact as San Francisco, Chicago or St. Louis, we have several municipal organizations working under a county government having jurisdiction over a large rural territory. It is idle to contend that perpetuating this system promises any decrease of tax burdens or promotes civic progress.

If a group of business men owned a series of plants manufacturing the same articles, having interests and markets in common, they would not hesitate a day about consolidating, for it is both axiomatic and taught by experience that a consolidated management cheapens the cost of operation, increases the standard of efficency and simplifies supervision and direction. We have here a solid urban district holding an approximate of 300,000 inhabitants. It is clear to any common sense intellect that it would be vastly cheaper to have one set of administrative officers instead of the half-dozen sets we have, and that a single government would be infinitely more effective and cheaper than the many we now have operating within a separate county government. Single fire, police and street departments for the entire district would make strong organizations where all are now weak and would afford a maximum of efficiency at a minimum of expense.

Besides, the towns clustered together on the Alameda shore have common interests and ties which can never be divorced by charters or lines of political division. Their parks are a common possession, and so are their highways. Their streets and car lines continue under the same names through the various petty municipalities, defying alike the geography of parochial papsuckers and the insular narrowness of parish patriotism. A group of ten-cent shows and five-cent nickelodeons can never be a great theater or a complete circus, but the elements of such an aggregation can be amalgamated and developed into a really great organization of its kind. It is so with municipalities. A great city, imbued with the spirit of progress and improved by a harmonious scheme of adornment, each part being a detail of the whole, cannot be developed by perpetuating the village idea, the village system of government and the spirit of parochial separation. Over here we are now only a collection of guerilla detachments. What we need to do is to organize the whole body into a compact, disciplined army, and then we will be prepared to go forward and conquer success in the future.

"Poverty is no crime" is frequently on the lips of moralists. But all the same millions do time at hard labor for the offense of being poor.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE FAVORS HARBOR IMPROVEMENT PLANS

Bond Issue of Nearly $5,000,000 Will be Further Discussed—East Oakland Charges Partiality.

EAST OAKLAND MAKES PROTEST

We, the undersigned residents, property owners, citizens and taxpayers of said city of Oakland hereby protest to your honorable body against the proposed bond issue now before your honorable body in the matter of issuing $5,000,000 for the improvement of the water front of part of the city of Oakland and making no provision for the improvement of the water front along one of the most important industrial centers and waterways of the city of Oakland, to-wit: all that part of the estuary east of Fallon street.

We particularly call attention to the fact that there is now in operation along the said estuary east of Fallon street a number of commercial and manufacturing industries and we feel a great injury would be done, not only to them but to the entire city of Oakland if the water front was not continued and improved east of Fallon street.

Following an interesting and lively debate the Council committee of the whole last night voted to recommend to the City Council the adoption of sections one, two and three of the general plan for harbor improvements under municipal ownership.

The committee also recommended that a bond election be held, calling for $4,-600,000 in bonds, $3,000,000 to be expended in the estuary in section 3 and $1,500,000 in the "white meat," section 1 and 2.

WHAT IS PROPOSED.

Councilman Jackson, chairman of the committee on wharves and waterfront, in moving the adoption of the plans which were drawn by Engineer Brown under direction of City Engineer Turner and at the instance of the Board of Works, said that the time was ripe for such improvements as the situation was well in hand; that the United States Circuit Court had decided that the city was entitled to the exclusive wharfing out privileges and that the city now has the control of the so-called "White Meat," which is situated between the water front possessions of the Western Pacific and Southern Pacific companies. His committee had recommended that the committee of the whole take favorable action on the report.

MONEY TO BE EXPENDED.

Councilman Jackson said that the cost of making the proposed improvements would be approximately $4,93?,000. Sections one and two comprise the "white meat" while section three is that portion of the water front on the estuary from Linden to Webster streets. Section four, which is not included in the parts recommended for improvement just at this time is in the estuary in the east end.

It was explained by Councilman Jackson that this section was not included because a change of harbor lines as necessitated which would delay the work for from five to ten years; that the United States court decision does not effect that section, that the plans provide for improvement only as far as the north end of the lake and that it was the intention under the plans to improve only those sections of the harbor over which the city has undisputed control.

A DISSENTING VOICE.

Councilman Aitken was on his feet at the close of Councilman Jackson's remarks and emphatically declared that he, on behalf of the citizens in his ward, would do everything to defeat the whole proposition, as under the plans nothing was provided for in the East Oakland water front section.

"Under these plans you are allowing us nothing in East Oakland," he said. "It is unfair and unjust. We are cut out entirely from this proposed expenditure of public moneys. If you decide to give us nothing I must say that I am against the whole proposition. City Attorney McElroy has decided that the city has absolute control of the water front. East Oakland is the principal and most important section of the city so far as manufacturing and business interests are concerned. The people of that section will be set against this plan, as it can be plainly seen that they are to receive no benefit whatever. A wharf is badly needed in East Oakland. I am of the opinion that the people will not vote one cent unless the proposed improvements are properly distributed. If they are properly distributed, then they will vote for even more than the $5,000,000 asked. I think that the people of East Oakland have been intentionally slighted and I am against the entire proposition, first, last and all the time—that is, I am against it as it stands at this time."

WANTS FIRE PROTECTION.

Councilman Burns said he was for water front improvements, but he wanted it understood that if he voted for the expenditure of money or providing for a bond election, there must be a rider in the bond issue call providing for $50,000 for fire protection in North Oakland. He, however, was one of those to vote favorably on the report, saying that he was for water front improvement first, last and all the time.

"If we can't have wharves over our direction," he said, "we can have fire protection, and we must have it."

SECTIONALISM AROUSED.

Councilmen Ellsworth, Elliot and Bronner regretted the fact that the councilmen were not pulling together in the matter before the committee, saying that if sectionalism were aroused they might as well stop where they were. It appeared to Councilman Elliot that it was evident only after thirty minutes of debate that feelings on the part of councilmen to the effect that their wards or their sections of the city should be provided for and the general plan of starting an improvement for the benefit of the entire city be overlooked, would work a detriment to the whole affair.

CITY'S INTEREST AT STAKE.

"Property owners," he said "will be conservative when it comes to voting for the expenditure of money, and if we arouse this sectional feeling we might as well stop where we are. I am willing to leave it to the judgment of the engineers as to the sections to be improved. This is merely an opening wedge in the water front improvement and the interests of the city are at stake. The shipping interests are at present on the channel and the heart of the city tends that way. The first money should be expended where the shipping interests are located, and for that reason I favor the improvement of the section known as three, which is at the foot of Broadway and beyond.

"There are certain elements of experiment about the 'white meat,' but because of its natural ingress from deep water into Oakland I favor the second expenditure there. We should not start an argument as to which ward or which man is to be benefitted but should remember that this proposed improvement is for the benefit of the entire city and but a start toward providing one of the greatest water front and dockage systems in the world. I believe that in time to come we will have wharves running from the far end of the estuary clear around to Emeryville, but if we go on lining the water front with wharves in our mind the people will not line any in reality. Let's not split ourselves on the question involved, but stand together for the benefit of the city as a whole and not as East Oakland or as West Oakland."

TO LET PEOPLE JUDGE.

Councilmen Burns and Bronner then said that they were willing to pass the matter up to the people for a vote and let them be their own judges.

"Let us make some sort of a start in earnest," said Bronner, "and show the people that we are at last off on the right track."

The vote on recommending the report for adoption to the council was as follows:

Ayes—Burns, Boecus, Bronner, Everhart, Elliot, Ellsworth, Jackson and Mullins.

Noes—Aitken.

Absent—Stachler and Pendleton.

HOPE TO ESTABLISH NEW FREE MARKET

BERKELEY, Aug. 15.—The Citizens and Taxpayers League of West Berkeley has begun an agitation for the establishment of a free market somewhere near the water front. Dr. C. E. Waite launched the project. Dr. Waite said: "The producers have told me that they can establish a free market here, place a superintendent in charge and dispose of their stock direct to the consumer. The doing away with the middleman's profit will put all produce in plenty within the reach of the poor, the ones who need it."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

How would you like to be the ice trust?

The only way some people know is the other way.

It takes a woman with sound judgment to generate silence.

Gossips talk about others and bores talk about themselves.

Being had all the time is almost as monotonous as being good.

The girl who marries for money is lucky if she gets even that.

Many a man has put his foot in it by asking a woman for her hand.

It sometimes happens that a man doesn't ask his wife to sing because he is fond of music.

What a lot of trouble some children seem to have keeping their parents in the way they should go!

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR

A man can keep out of a great deal of trouble by never being guided by his judgment.

A woman is never willing to call it a cottage unless it cost four times as much as a house.

The way for a man to improve his wife's confidence in him is not to be afraid to talk at home about the typewriter girl in his office.

It's mighty queer if the Lord loveth the cheerful giver of advice.

The way some people lie about their truthfulness is a great credit to them.

When a man volunteers to take his wife on a trip with him next week she can be absolutely sure he isn't going.

Girls seem to want to change their stockings for whatever they are going to do, even to saying their prayers.

IDEAL NEW HOME SITES

The famous Toler Tract, so ideally situated, overlooking the Coast Range Mountains, the cities, bay and ocean, on the line of the new Key Route extension and the S. P. proposed electric line, has been secured by the Great Western Realty Company.

These people are to finish the improvements that were well under way by their predecessors and expect to make it one of the most beautiful and substantial districts in the county, built up with good homes and the lots selling at a cost within reach of the working class of people. The large ostrich farm is not far away from the property.

Automobiles are in continuous service to and from the tract, and many lots have already been sold. Mr. J. A. Sutton, the president of the company, whose offices are at 406 Twelfth street, is well and favorably known in Oakland.

VENIREMAN THOUGHT HENEY WAS A GROCER

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—"Have you ever heard of Francis J. Heney"—Attorney Bylington to Venireman Robinson.

"The name is rather familiar but I can't place it. Is he a grocer out in Richmond?"—Robinson's reply.

G. W. Robinson, a tailor of 2109 Bush street, was called as a prospective juryman in the case of James Treadwell. In the course of his examination Attorney Bylington for the defense asked the talesman if he knew Heney.

"The name is rather familiar," said Robinson. "It seems to me that I have heard it somewhere, but I can't place it. Is he a grocer somewhere out in the Richmond?"

For a full moment the trial came to a standstill while the spectators gasped for breath. Judge Conley passed the back of his hand across his face to hide an expression of consternation.

"You have never heard Mr. Heney speak, then?" continued Attorney Bylington.

"Never," declared Robinson.

"Just listen one moment," said Bylington, raising his hand to command silence. Every one strained his ears.

Across the hall in Judge Lawlor's court room at that moment Heney's voice could be heard in heated argument. The Burns contempt proceedings was in full swing over there.

"That," said Attorney Bylington, "is Attorney Heney's voice. You need have no excuse again to declare openly that you never heard him."

NAVAL APPRENTICES ON WAY TO COAST

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Under orders received from the navy department 247 naval apprentices have been detailed for service on the warships now on the sea coasts. The apprentices will sail to Norfolk, Va., and go overland to San Francisco.

Notice is hereby given to the electors of the State of California that the following Acts will be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden on the third day of November, A. D. 1908, to wit:

SENATE BILL NO. 461.

Passed the Senate February 22, A. D. 1907. Lewis A. Hilborn, Secretary of the Senate.

Passed the Assembly, March 6, A. D. 1907. Clio Lloyd, Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

This Bill was received by the Governor, this 9th day of March, A. D. 1907, at 12 o'clock M. E. C. Cooper, Private Secretary of the Governor.

CHAPTER 421. An act to provide for the issuance and sale of State bonds to create a fund for the construction by the board of state harbor commissioners of wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs and appurtenances in the city and county of San Francisco; to create a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds; and providing for the submission of this act to a vote of the people.

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. For the purpose of providing a fund for the payment of the indebtedness hereby authorized to be incurred by the board of state harbor commissioners for the erection of wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs and appurtenances in the city and county of San Francisco, at a cost not to exceed two million dollars (which said wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs and appurtenances the board of state harbor commissioners are hereby empowered to construct in the manner authorized by law, and at a cost not to exceed said two million dollars), the state treasurer shall, immediately after the issuance of the proclamation of the governor, provided for in section 10 hereof, prepare two thousand suitable bonds of the State of California, in the denomination of one thousand dollars each. The whole issue of said bonds shall not exceed the sum of two million dollars, and said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, from the time of the sale thereof, and both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the present standard value, and they shall be payable at the office of the state treasurer, at the expiration of nineteen years from their date, subject, however, to redemption by lot as in this act hereinafter provided. Said bonds shall bear date the second day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred and nine, and shall be made payable on the second day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight A. D. The interest accruing on such of said bonds as are sold, shall be due and payable at the office of the state treasurer on the second day of January, and on the second day of July, of each year after the sale of the same; provided, that the first payment of interest shall be made on the second day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred and ten, on so many of said bonds as may have been theretofore sold. At the expiration of nineteen years from the date of said bonds all bonds sold shall cease to bear interest and likewise all bonds redeemed by lot shall cease to bear interest as in this act provided, and the said state treasurer shall call in, forthwith pay and cancel the same, out of the moneys in the second San Francisco seawall sinking fund provided for in this act, and, he shall on the first Monday of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, also cancel and destroy all bonds not theretofore sold. All bonds issued shall be signed by the governor, and countersigned by the controller, and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer, and each shall have the seal of the state stamped thereon. Each bond shall contain a clause that it is subject to redemption by lot after the year nineteen hundred and eighteen.

Sec. 2. Interest coupons shall be attached to each of said bonds, so that such coupons may be removed without injury to or mutilation of the bond. Said coupons shall be consecutively numbered, and shall be signed by the state treasurer. But no interest on any of said bonds shall be paid for any time which may intervene between the date of any of said bonds and the issue and sale thereof to a purchaser.

Sec. 3. The sum of one thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to pay the expense that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared. Said amount shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 4. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the board of state harbor commissioners, but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered; and he may, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. The costs of such publication shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the treasury, and must be by him kept in a separate fund to be known and designated as the "Second San Francisco Seawall Fund" and must be used exclusively for the construction of wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs and appurtenances thereto on the water front of the city and county of San Francisco. Drafts and warrants upon said fund shall be drawn upon and shall be paid out of said fund in the same manner as drafts and warrants are drawn upon and paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund.

Sec. 5. For the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds a sinking fund, to be known and designated as the "Second San Francisco Seawall Sinking Fund" shall be, and the same is hereby created, as follows, to wit: The state treasurer shall, on the first day of each and every month after the sale of said bonds, take from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund such sum as, multiplied by the time the bonds then sold and outstanding have to run, will equal the principal of the bonds sold and outstanding at the time said treasurer shall so take said sum from said San Francisco harbor improvement fund, less the amount theretofore taken therefrom for said purpose; and he shall place the sum in the second San Francisco seawall sinking fund created by this act. Said state treasurer shall, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose, employ the moneys in said sinking fund in the purchase of bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities of the State of California, which said bonds shall be kept in a proper receptacle, appropriately labeled; but he must keep always on hand a sufficient amount of money in said sinking fund with which to pay the interest on such of the state bonds herein provided to be issued as may have theretofore been sold. And to provide means for the payment of interest on the bonds that may be sold and outstanding, said treasurer shall monthly take from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, and pay into said seawall sinking fund, an amount equal to the monthly interest then due on all bonds then sold, delivered and outstanding. The board of state harbor commissioners are hereby authorized and directed by the collection of dockage, tolls, rents, wharfage and cranage to collect a sum of money sufficient for the purposes of this act, over and above the amount limited by section two thousand five hundred and twenty-six of the Political Code of the State of California. Between the first and tenth day of November, in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen and between the first and tenth day of November of each year thereafter until the maturity of said bonds the said treasurer shall, in the presence of the governor, proceed to draw by lots such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund at that time, and shall thereupon and before the tenth day of December following, give notice by public advertisement, to be inserted twice a week for two weeks in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, stating the number of bonds so drawn and that the principal of said bonds will be paid on presentation to the treasurer on or before the second day of January, following, and that from and after such last named date, all interest upon bonds thus drawn shall cease, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer as soon as said bonds so drawn by lot are surrendered to him and paid to cancel the same, and the interest coupons thereon, and each year beginning with the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, the said treasurer shall, in the manner aforesaid, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund, and proceed in the manner hereinabove stated. After the payment of all said bonds, the surplus or balance remaining in said sinking fund, if any there be, shall forthwith be paid into the San Francisco harbor improvement fund. At the time of the respective drawings by lot, as aforesaid, and also at the maturity of said state bonds, said treasurer shall sell the United States or other bonds then in said sinking fund, at governing market rates, after advertising the sale thereof in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and shall use the proceeds for the payment of such bonds as may be drawn by lot, and at the maturity of said bonds outstanding shall pay and redeem said matured outstanding bonds out of said moneys in said fund in extinguishment of said bonds on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 6. The state controller and the state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the interest of said bonds, when the same falls due, out of the sinking fund provided for in this act, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 8. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, A. D. nineteen hundred and eight, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 9. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden in the month of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and eight, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and at the end thereof, the words "For the San Francisco Seawall Act" and in a separate line under the same words "Against the San Francisco Seawall Act," and opposite said lines there shall be left spaces in which the voters may make or stamp a cross to indicate whether they vote for or against the said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the San Francisco Seawall Act," and all those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the San Francisco Seawall Act." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 10. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and eight, the costs of publication shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 12. This act may be known and cited as the "Second San Francisco Seawall Act."

Sec. 13. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed."

"Our general superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old Libby Prison diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the Twenty-third Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except Libby Prison diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once."

FISHERMAN BATTLES FOR LIFE IN SURF

EUREKA, Aug. 15.—While attempting to cross the Humboldt Bar early yesterday morning, Alfons Beckstron, a crab fisherman, was swamped in his boat and for over an hour struggled in the icy water until he gained the shore, over 1000 yards away. The bar was very rough and Breckstron, while in the water, divested himself of clothes and boots and swam ashore. He was exhausted and nearly dead when found on the beach.

Operations on the Corona wreck are progressing splendidly. A wharf has been built to the hull and some additional deck machinery secured. Manager Doe of the North Pacific Company expects to float the vessel before the winter sets in.

TRIBUNE'S GALLERY OF SMART SET

No. 47--Mrs. Paul Dinsmore

Mrs. Paul Dinsmore is considered a very handsome woman, so her friends have entered her in the beauty contest. She was formerly Miss Marietta Havens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Havens of Vernon Heights. Mrs. Dinsmore is a prominent member of the smart set of Oakland. She has been entertained in many homes here.

BY A WOMAN HATER

Love laughs at locksmiths, but not at wedlock.

She who loves and runs away may be sorry later on.

If a man who owns an automobile is a bachelor it's his own fault.

One's neighbors can see an eclipse of the honeymoon without the aid of a telescope.

About her complexion the average woman worries more than she does about her prospective harp and crown.

When a woman takes the conceit out of a man she adds to her own.

Marriage isn't necessarily a failure, but it is seldom what it is supposed to be.

By hanging around a girl many a young man has run his head into the matrimonial noose.

After a man has been married a week he begins to unlearn a lot of the thing he knew about women.

Every time it rains we are reminded that not all displays of fancy hosiery are confined to shop windows.

Perhaps women are wearing sleeves short enough to expose their funny bones merely to prove that they have a sense of humor.

$50 In Gold $50

THE TRIBUNE'S contest for the handsomest woman in the smart sets of the Pacific coast will close on Aug. 26.

The awards will be $25 for the first prize; $15 for the second and $10 for the third.

The prizes will be awarded by a jury of artists, selected by THE TRIBUNE, who will pass on each photograph entered.

The competition is for all members of the smart sets of California for the purpose of selecting the handsomest woman of the Golden West.

All communications are to be addressed to the Editor of the Woman's Page, OAKLAND TRIBUNE, Oakland, California.

She Wanted to Be Nice and Right So She CALLED 'CALVES' OF SINGERS' LEGS Bipeds

NEW YORK.—Miss Alice Little, now that her cousin Colford has married into the well-sugared Knight house, is always included as a guest at the Knight dinners and theater parties. At Freobody Pa[rk] the other night one of the feminine p[er]formers presented a rather shapely p[air] of calves, which Miss Little, wishing [to] be ultra-polite, referred to as "bipeds." It has been recorded in the newspapers that Miss Edith Colford is back at Newport after an absence of several years, though all the press notes were grateful enough to omit saying where she spent the two years. The inference is that she has entirely recovered from that form of indisposition from which her mother has suffered so many years, but I regret to say that she is still far from being a well girl, and stares at old friends without recognizing them. It is to be hoped that the change from Bristol to the big Knight house will bring about her complete recovery.

THE LATEST ROYAL ROAD TO BEAUTY

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland Sets the Pace, and Takes Baths in Lemonade!

WHEN a queen renowned for her beauty announces that she has found a new and delightful method of restoring and preserving a naturally matchless complexion, every woman in the world that cares for beauty—and what woman does not?—is ready to "sit up and take notice."

Men, too, for that matter; because men are probably more interested in the beauty of women than in any other one thing under the sun. At any rate, ever since the days of Adam men have done all sorts of things, great and foolish, on account of woman's beauty.

Be that as it may, the whole world is interested just now in the news that Queen Wilhelmina has explained her recent restoration to beauty by stating that daily baths in lemonade have wrought the seeming miracle. There may be some advantage, after all, in "picking a lemon in the garden of love."

It has two chief virtues. In mid-summer it is not only cooling, but bracing. The sour beverages, all who have suffered from July and August heat know, slake the thirst more effectually than do sweet drinks. Taken in moderate quantities, they are a tonic to the stomach and, cooling it, remove the desire for ice. That acids taken into the blood thin and cool it is an axiom of medicine. The lemonade that invigorates the system when taken into it via the stomach is as effective when taken through the millions of pores in the skin by means of a bath.

Care must be exercised in using the lemonade bath or it becomes injurious instead of beneficial. The exact details of the receipe used by Queen Wilhelmina, and a score of other secrets of the up-to-date woman's beauty bath, are given in a full page illustrated article in the Magazine section of tomorrow's Sunday American. Order it from your newsdealer today, or you may be unable to get it.

16,425 Toledo Men BEAT THEIR WIVES

TOLEDO.—According to statistics compiled by Humane Officer Ware, three wives on an average have been beaten every day by their husbands in Toledo for the last fifteen years. The statistics contained the following facts:

Wives beaten by their husbands, 16,425.
Wives deserted by their husbands, 4366.
Husbands deserted by their wives, 600.

The cases of wife-beating cited by Mr. Ware do not include those which have never found their way into police court or have been reported to the Humane Society.

"I don't know why, but I got the idea of keeping a record of the wife-beating and other cases coming under my jurisdiction when I was first appointed to the office," remarked Mr. Ware. "The other day I happened to look over my records and soon became interested in the information.

"The epidemic of wife-beating in Toledo has increased at an enormous rate during the past five years. When I was first appointed it was a rare thing for me to receive complaint from a wife, but now I am daily besieged with them, and some of the cases reported are pathetic in the extreme."

YOUNG GIRLS STEAL PAPA'S JEWELS

Give Them to Their Best Fellows and All Go Out on a Good Time.

NEW YORK.—To provide themselves with escorts to the giddy lobster belt in Manhattan, Pauline and Minnie Miskam, 19 and 17 years old, are alleged to have robbed their father, Frederick Miskam, a jeweler of 105 Bergenline avenue, Union Hill, N. J. Three of their male friends are under arrest in Union Hill, charged with receiving stolen property, and the police of New York are looking for an elevator boy who they say, was the fourth beneficiary of their generosity.

The girls are prominent socially in the Jersey town and their father is considered wealthy. They acted as clerks in the store at times and had ample opportunity to appropriate as many watches, diamonds and other bits of jewelry as they desired. The police say Miskam estimates his loss at not less than $3000.

The three prisoners are Nicholas Schultz, 21, of 428 Dubois street; R. Barker, 17, of 148 Spring street, West Hoboken, and Jacob Maibach, 22, of 411 Jefferson street, Union Hill. They seem confident Miskam will not prosecute them. He has sent his daughters away, declining to take criminal action against them.

Miskam has been missing diamond rings and other jewelry from his store for some time and could not account for it. Young Barker is said to have astonished his companions by purchasing a $125 bull terrier, and Maibach is said to have spent so much money that the suspicions of his mother were aroused and learning of his friendship with the jeweler's daughters, she had a talk with Miskam. He sent for Pauline and she is alleged to have confessed that they gave the boys jewelry which they exchanged for theater parties and late dinners for them in the fashionable restaurants in New York's Broadway belt.

The girls furnished a list of the presents they had made, including, it is said, diamond rings, a diamond stud, and a pair of diamond earrings to Maibach.

They also gave him $10 cash on one occasion for expenses to a New York theater, with supper after the show. When Schultz lost one of the rings given to him at Coney Island, Miss Pauline is said to have given him another. Miskam says he does not really wish to prosecute the boys, and thinks it possible some agreement may be reached with their parents by which they can escape prison. The boys' parents seem to place all the blame on the girls.

LOVE FOR ACTRESS LAWYER'S RUIN

PHILADELPHIA.—Robert A. Campbell, the attorney, of Jackson, Mich., who was arrested here Saturday in the company of Henrietta Brown, an actress, was committed to prison by Magistrate Beaton at the Central Police station recently to await requisition papers from his native town on a charge of embezzling money and for non-support and desertion of his wife and four children. Miss Brown was on hand at the hearing.

Campbell's infatuation for the actress led him away from his home, the detective declared, and for her sake he forsook his wife and children and gave up a lucrative practice as a lawyer, and retained money, bonds, mortgages and other securities of clients. He was arrested then and held in $1000 bail on a charge of embezzling $600 from a client. He went to a hospital at Ann Arbor, but soon left. He was traced to town after town, where the show in which Miss Brown was playing was billed, and a reward was offered for his capture. Detective Ducy located him and Miss Brown at a boarding-house on Walnut street, near Tenth.

Campbell is being guarded, as, according to the detectives, he told them he would not be taken back to Jackson alive.

VENUS NEEDS AMERICAN GIRL'S ARMS

FRENCH MODELS DO NOT MEASURE UP TO THE NEEDS

Venus needs an American girl's arms.

The greatest statue of antique Greece, "blooming with eternal youth," "the full-blown flower of womanly beauty," "incomparable among the sculptured works of Old or New," has always been without arms since 1820, when it was discovered in the Isle of Melos by the peasant Jorgos—and fought over in the night by Turks and French men-of-war's-men.

For there is no doubt the Venus of Milo is a statue-portrait. Certain irregularities have always been admitted as proving that the sculptor worked upon it from the living model. Thus, a real girl's arms must be put on her, or she will appear to have been given lifeless, artificial arms, however nobly imagined; because it is one of the greatest qualities of the great antique work that its sculptor treated the whole organism so as to reveal much of the main fabric, the surface showing the shadow of the bone structure beneath. And should the modern rise to the consummate "veritas" of those magnificent shoulders where is he to get his model for the arms?

Not in Paris. No Parisian model has such arms. Indeed, it has been long a "sour grapes" joke both of professional models and Parisian beauties of society and stage to stand with their admirers before Venus of Milo and chime (guy disrespectfully) her form.

"Those Yankee goddesses who scare us by their splendor as they stride through Europe in hygenic shoes!" repeats the art critic of Gaulois. "Nevertheless, one judges that within those 'American shoes' are feet of perfect form. They are big girls. They have long waists and shoulders. Their long limbs swing free. They are a new type, even for America. A new type? No, an old, revived. They are Venuses of Milo!"

GOT $15,000 FOR OUTLIVING 64 GIRLS

ST. LOUIS.—Mrs. Margarette Castens, 94 years old, who received $15,000 three years ago as the result of a unique compact entered into by sixty-five girls more than seventy years ago, died yesterday in this city. She is survived by six children, twenty-six grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren.

Seventy-five years ago Mrs. Castens was a pupil in a convent school near Stuttgart, Germany. The girls there agreed, just before they were graduated, to pay a certain number of marks a year into a Berlin bank, and the entire amount was to go to the last surviving member of the class.

Three years ago Mrs. Castens found herself the only one of the class remaining. She wrote to the bank, thinking that she would receive a few thousand dollars. What she got was in excess of $15,000.

Live Teddy Bears Are the Fads of the NO BABY Society People

Live "Teddy bears" have usurped the monkey, the Pekingese pug, the "Pom" and poodles in the boudoirs of the "smart" women of the West End. My lady of the metropolis has not been content with the imitation kind so beloved of the fair sex in the United States, but insists upon the real thing or nothing. Just at present the proud owners of these pets are busy arranging Teddy bear "at homes." How long the craze will last it is impossible to say, but the little brown woolly animals will probably hold sway in fashionable English drawing-rooms for a year or so, and then go the way of the countless fads which preceded it.

The baby bears which are sold in the London market come from Borneo. The fad is an expensive one, for not much in the bear line can be obtained under $150.

Wife Yawns— Dislocates Her Jaw

NEW YORK.—Mrs. Tiennie Heines of 413 East One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street was still sleepy when she got up at 4 o'clock in the morning recently to get breakfast for her husband. She yawned, and in so doing dislocated her jaw. She couldn't talk, of course, and shook her husband till he got awake and then pointed to her disabled jaw. It was not the first time the jaw had gone wrong, and Mr. Heines generally had been able to get it back into place, but the dislocation was a particularly stubborn one, and he could do nothing with it. He called a policeman, and the latter called Dr. Keep of Lincoln hospital, who fixed matters. Mrs. Heines got her husband's breakfast after a slight delay.

Husband Waits For His Breakfast

Brave Girl Gives Her Skin To Save an Injured Sister

BROOKLYN.—Bravely submitting to a skin-grafting operation, Isabella Lynch, 13 years old, saved the life of her 9-year-old sister, Mildred, whose death was momentarily expected recently in Kings county hospital, Brooklyn, before the offer of Isabella to permit the removal of some of her skin was accepted by the physicians.

Mildred lives with her parents at 388 Pine street, East New York, and was seriously burned about the hips while playing near a bonfire with some of her companions. The child's mother offered to give up her skin, but Mildred's sister and her brother, Arthur, 15 years old, insisted that they be permitted to undergo the operation. The physicians chose Isabella as the subject.

Placing her upon the operating table, an anesthetic was administered, the skin removed and grafted to the body of Mildred. Both children stood the effects of the operation well, and the physicians declared that there is little chance of the death of Mildred.

Hubby Told the Truth

The wife sat in her hotel room
And read a note which said,
"I miss you, darling, so much,
My heart has weight like lead.

"I never go away at nights.
I work the whole day through,
But naught my sad thoughts can distract,
I think so much of you.

"There's nothing in this lonely town
Can make up for your loss;
In vain my friends entreat of me
To feel I'm my own boss.

"I miss you and the children so,
I cannot even sleep,
But lie awake so sad and lone
I feel that I could weep.

"But don't return, my dear, too soon,
I know you need the rest;
To scrape along along till you return,
I'll do my level best."

Her eye it flashed, her brow grew dark,
She cried, "Does that fool think
I can be taken in with this
Mere talk of pen and ink?

"The rascal's having a good time,
So throws dust in my eyes.
I'll hie me home without a word,
And take him by surprise."

She did the same, but, oh, alas!
He fooled her, in good soothe,
And she was mad, for she found out
He'd told her the plain truth.

Lincoln-Roosevelt Politician Was a Repeater

MAIL CLERK TRICKED OUTLAWS

Threw Registered Mail Into Newspaper Sacks Before the Masked Men Arrived.

SPOKANE, Aug. 15. — Tricked by the quick wit of mail clerks, little plunder is believed to have been captured by the two masked men who held up the Northern Pacific west bound passenger train just east of Spokane last night. Warned that the robbers were coming the clerks took advantage of the time after the train had been cut in two and threw the local registered packages into a newspaper sack where they were not noticed.

NOTHING OF VALUE.

So far as reported the only booty stolen was the pouch of registered mails sent from Chicago to Spokane and one for Seattle made up along the road. Neither is known to have carried any packages of value.

The search for the robbers continues. It is believed they hurried to the city and are in hiding there. One suspect has been captured having been found on top of the train after the robbery. He gives the name of Frank Snyder and may prove to be a plain hobo who was simply stealing a ride.

LEAGUE CANDIDATE FOR THE ASSEMBLY IS UNDER ARREST

One of the "Reform" Leaguers in Southern California Taken Into Custody for Voting Twice at Primary.

LOS ANGELES, August 15.—Robert Mitchell, Lincoln-Roosevelt candidate for Assemblyman in the Seventy-fifth Assembly District of this county, was arrested at Corona yesterday by Constable Cohn charged with voting twice at the primaries last Tuesday. Mitchell was brought to Los Angeles and taken before Justice Stephens and released on bail of $1000.

He admits having voted twice at the City Hall precinct in Los Angeles, but said he did so through a mistake, having forgotten that he had voted the first time.

After he had cast his second ballot, he said, he remembered having voted once before, and immediately went to see his attorney about the matter. His attorney advised him to have his name scratched off the precinct register and get permission to take one of his ballots from the box. This privilege was denied him by the election officials and a warrant for his arrest was issued.

2 BROTHERS DENY THE MURDER

Thomas and James Young Arraigned for Killing Policeman, Each Accuses Other of the Crime.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Thomas O. Young who, together with his twin brother, James O. Young, is charged with the murder of Policeman William Ilcins, which occurred on the Barbary Coast early in July, this morning pleaded not guilty to the charge against him in Judge Lawlor's court.

Owing to the fact that proceedings are under way in another department in connection with James Young, he was not forced to plead at the same time with his brother. Each of the defendants implicates the other in the direct commission of the crime, and as both look very much alike there seems to be some doubt as to who fired the fatal shot.

A hat and a handkerchief worn by Thomas, however, are said to incriminate him dangerously. Attorney T. J. Crowley, who represented the defendants in the police court, is traveling in Europe and will not return until the middle of October. Accordingly a continuance was asked until that time, but Judge Lawlor set down the case for August 24 over the protest of the defendant.

TO FRAME NEW FISH LAWS

President Jordan, Member of International Commission, Reaches Winnipeg With Others in Research.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 15. — Professor David Starr Jordan, president of the Leland Stanford University, B. W. Everman, chief of the scientific division of the bureau of fishing at Washington; H. N. Stoly, secretary of the International Fisheries commission and S. T. Bastedo, Canadian representative of the commission, reached the city yesterday.

All are members of the International Fisheries commission, which has been empowered by the Canadian government and the United States to inquire into the condition of fisheries in boundary waters with a view to making fishery laws the same for both countries and preventing a depletion of the fishing supply. The commissioners started their labors at Eastport, Maine, and have made inquiries all along the border waters.

After concluding these inquiries, they will draw up a series of regulations suitable to obtain the objects sought and will submit these to the two governments.

CASTRO HAS REBELLION ON HAND

Powerful Enemies and Countrymen of Venezuelan President Band Together to Overthrow Government.

PALMA, Aug. 15.—Numerous members of the Venezuelan colony here express gratification over the turn revolutionary affairs in their country are reported to have taken.

Two special commissioners from the revolutionary camp at Los Andes arrived here yesterday and brought to their countrymen the news that the revolutionary movement in Venezuela is very strong. General Roland, ex-president of the State of Guayna, and military chief in the recent Matos rebellion, is being joined by powerful and influential enemies of President Castro.

"I'M THEIR ONLY DAUGHTER AND THEY DIDN'T WANT ME TO WED," SAYS ELOPING BRIDE

The parents of Miss Tessie A. Willcke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willcke of 215 Sixth street, received something of a shock when their daughter told them that she had been a bride since July 15. They had not had the slightest intimation that their daughter had eloped, for she had been residing with them as before her marriage.

The young woman told her parents that she had been married on July 15 in San Jose to Frank Banchio, an engineer on a Southern Pacific ferryboat, who resides at 759 Jackson street.

"My parents did not object to my marrying Mr. Banchio," said the bride today, "but they did not want me to leave home at all, for I am their only daughter. Only my parents know of my wedding, my friends not having been told yet. We will reside on Lincoln street in East Oakland."

GIRLS ARE KILLED BY INDIANS

Shocking Massacres Follow Renewal of Hostilities Between the Mexican Officials and the Yaquis.

NOGALES, Aug. 15.—Hostilities have been resumed in the State of Sonora, Mexico, and according to reports from different localities four or more persons have been killed. A report from Montezuma district says at the Rancho El Datil, Jesus Mojia and his three daughters were killed by Indians and a young boy carried off. A young girl escaped by concealing herself behind a door.

A few miles from La Colorado Camp two attacks were made by the Yaquis. Mexicans gathered at Pitahayas were fired on several times but escaped unhurt. The day before this occurrence two men riding on horseback through a dense wood were attacked and both badly wounded. It is believed that the attacks are being made by the band of Indians who have been near the border for several days and threatening to cross into the United States.

RACING OPENS AT THE YONKERS TRACK

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The racing campaign on the metropolitan district opens again today at the Empire City track, Yonkers, where a two weeks meeting is scheduled.

New improvements will greet the patrons. The general rate of admission of $2, with the joining of the grand and field stands, has met with general approval. Stabling room has been increased to accommodate six hundred horses. Another improvement is the use of the new chute, constructed at the far end of the first bend for races to be run at three-quarters of a mile. Heretofore the races were started on the turn of the track, which was both dangerous and unsatisfactory.

The track has been worked over daily for several weeks and yesterday it was very fast. With continued fair weather the Yonkers handicap, which is the feature of the card, promises to produce a fair race.

President James Butler has issued specific instructions to the special policemen at the track to enforce all laws, especially those relating to the prohibition of betting.

Today's racing will be the only conflict with the Saratoga track, which closes its season this afternoon.

FARMAN OUTWITS SHERIFF SEEKING HIS AEROPLANE

Frenchman Manages to Keep His Airship From Attachment for Debt.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Removing his aeroplane from the Brighton Beach race track to the "Hudson," a steamship of the French freight line in the Hudson river, off West Forty-fourth street, under cover of darkness early yesterday, and sending his personal baggage away from his apartment in the Hotel Astor, Henri Farman succeeded in outwitting lawyers, creditors and deputy sheriffs who filed yesterday to levy attachments for debt upon the airship.

Having spent 12 hours in an automobile directing the removal of the aeroplane and its consignment to the custody of the United States customs officers, and having had no sleep Thursday night, Farman went to bed at the Hotel Astor at 11 o'clock last night, leaving word that he would leave for France on the New York of the American line this morning.

OUTWITS SHERIFFS.

He saved his aeroplane from attachment by shipping it from the Brighton race track forty minutes before deputy sheriffs arrived there with the papers.

The process servers that the aeroplane had been removed seven hours before and that it would be useless for them to attempt to follow the trucks upon which it was taken away, Marman, M. L. Hammer, and their assistants persuaded the deputy sheriffs to lose half an hour of precious time searching the race track in the darkness to assure themselves that the aeroplane was not there. By the time the deputy sheriffs became satisfied of this fact, and started back to intercept the aeroplane that machine had been placed in the custody of the customs officials with whom it had been bonded.

SCARCITY OF SHAPELY CHORUS GIRLS ALARMS THEATRICAL MEN

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—There is a famine in chorus girls. The big show towns like Chicago, New York, Boston and Philadelphia, where companies are rehearsing for the opening of the season, are suffering from the lack of shapely young women who can dance and sing.

One night stands have not yet felt the effects of the shortage, but it is not improbable that these places will be called upon to furnish "merry vilagers" and "amazons" for more than one musical comedy before the theatrical season of 1908-9 is well under way. Stage folks say that never before was there such a scarcity of chorus girls. New York managers have sent emissaries to Chicago during the last two weeks to engage all the girls they could get. Extraordinary inducements have been offered to experienced stage women but it has been almost impossible for the agents to get girls who know the business.

HAS 275 POUND FRIEND'S CLOTHES CUT TO FIT HIM

Then Their Is Trouble for Slim Youth

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15. — Milton Rothchild, a porter, employed by the Pullman company and living in Oakland, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Alexander Forbes, a cook, employed on a Southern Pacific diner. Incidentally it might be well to state that Rothchild is slight and weighs 125 pounds, whereas Forbes tips the scales at close to 275.

The cook went away on his regular run to Ogden, leaving Rothchild his lifelong friend, in charge of his room and belongings. Now Forbes possessed a moderately fine wardrobe, and during his absence Rothchild dressed up one day in a suit of his clothes. He came over to San Francisco and made a tour of the barbary coast, incidentally Stepping into a tailor and having the suit cut down to his measure. When Forbes returned and found his clothes gone he had his former friend arrested and this morning when the case was called, on a promise by Rothchild to restore the garments, the charge was dismissed. The two friends left arm in arm and proceeded to the property clerk's office, where the missing clothing was held as evidence.

Knowing the condition of the apparel, Rothchild slipped away while Forbes was talking to Sergeant Cook, the property clerk, and when the latter saw the garments tattered and torn and unfit for further use by him, he left, leaving them lying on the counter, and promising dire vengeance upon Rothchild.

Wife Abandonment on the Increase

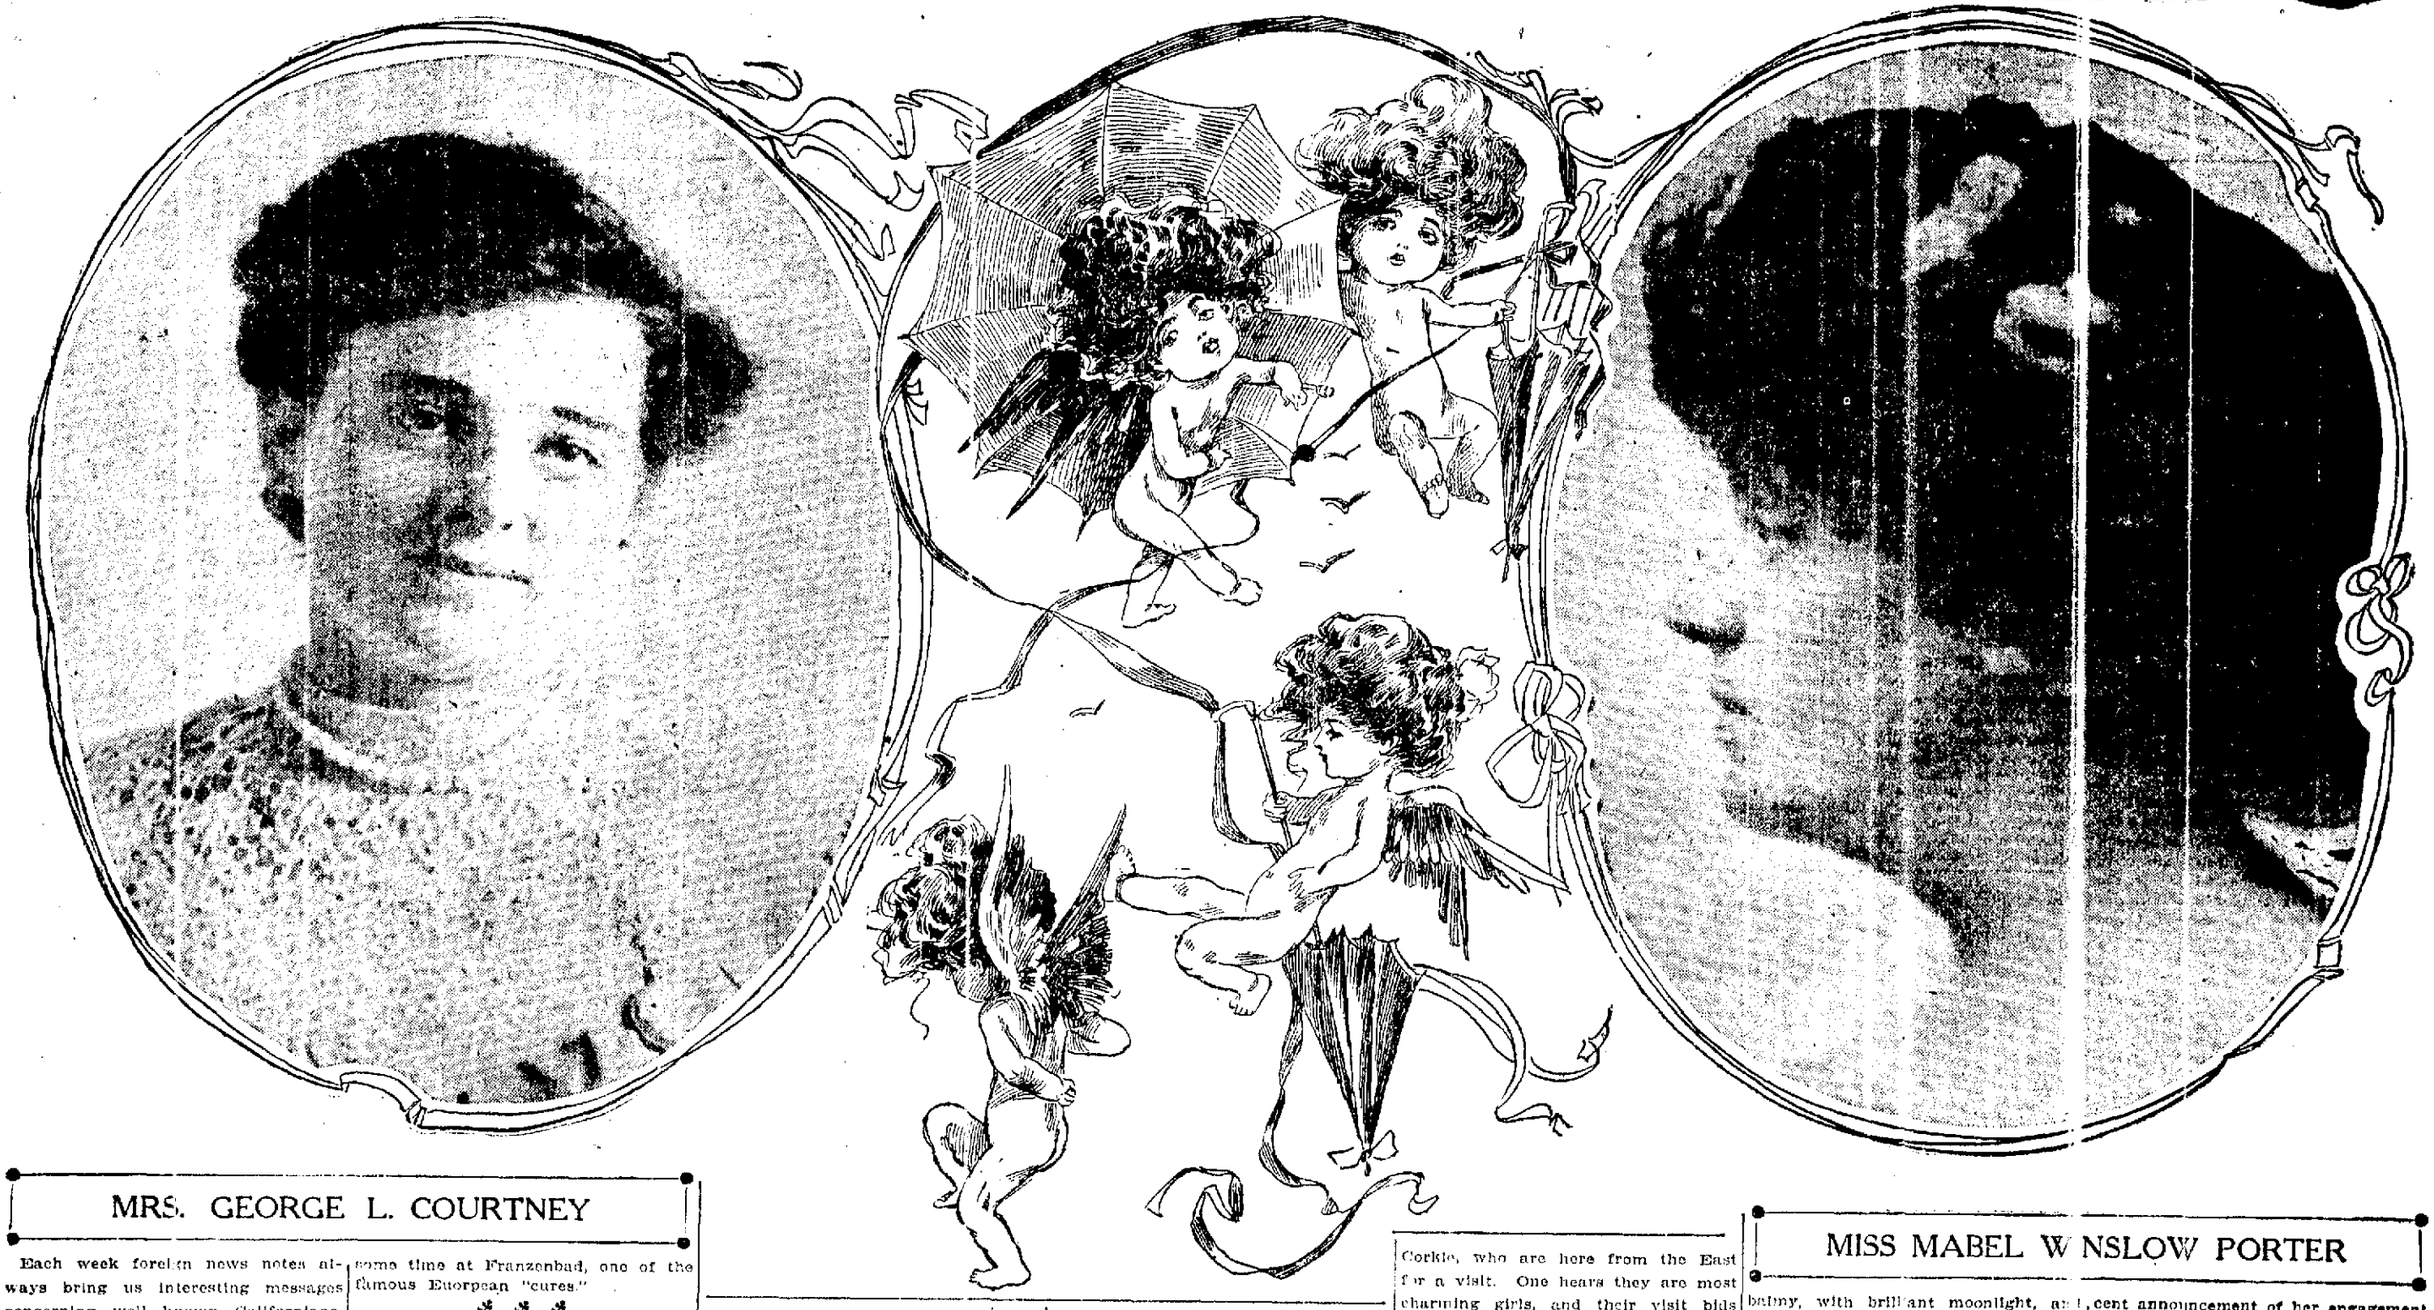

CHICAGO, August 15.—Wife abandonment is on the increase in Chicago. Between 300 and 400 cases have been reported to the Chicago Relief and Aid Society since last November. This is 50 per cent higher than the number reported to the society in the corresponding period last year. Lack of work, due to hard times, drunkenness and despondency are the principal causes advanced.

MOUNTS HIGHEST ATTITUDE EVER REACHED BY WOMAN

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 15. — Miss Annie S. Peck, of Providence, R. I., the mountain climber, signaled at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon her arrival at an altitude of 23,000 feet on Mount Huascaran, the summit of which is covered with perpetual snow. She is accompanied by two trained Alpine climbers.

Miss Peck left New York two months ago to make another attempt to reach the summit of Mount Huascaran, Peru, which she believed to be the highest peak in the Western Hemisphere. On an earlier trial she was compelled to give up the attempt after reaching a height of 17,500 feet, owing to the cowardice of her guides. By reaching an altitude of 25,000 feet Miss Peck has ascended higher than any man or woman in the world. The previous record was held by W. W. Graham, who reached a height of 23,800 feet in the Himalayas.

THE MEDDLER

MRS. GEORGE L. COURTNEY

Each week foreign news notes always bring us interesting messages concerning well known Californians, among whom are Mrs. Collis P. Huntington and her daughter, the Princess Hatzfeldt.

Mrs. C. P. Huntington has not come to San Francisco for some time, but there are many who remember the old time hospitality of the home on Nob Hill. Mrs. Huntington is a great friend of Mrs. Isaac Requa, the friendship dating from pioneer days, when the Stanfords and Huntingtons were not afraid to undertake the greatest engineering enterprise of modern days—a transcontinental railway.

Whenever the Requas went to New York, they were royally entertained at the Huntington home, and Mrs. Huntington has always been a welcome and an honored guest at Highlands, the beautiful Requa home.

Collis P. Huntington never liked the beautiful home he bought on Fifth avenue in New York. It is near the home of the Vanderbilts and near that of Mrs. Oelrichs, but Mrs. Huntington was never of their special set. She has lived much more quietly, though she has had wealth enough to make her a social power even in moneyed New York. She spends a great deal of time in Paris, and few people realize what a superb home is hers, even in that historical city of beautiful homes.

Mrs. Huntington owns the Elysee Palace, which once belonged to the Empress Eugenie. At one time she almost entirely rebuilt it, and among the dancing figures of the decorative panels of the Salon Bleu there still remains a picture of her ill-fated son, the Prince Imperial. A little history of this famous palace is interesting to Californians, since a California pioneer with Western enterprise, acquired the money which bought one of the famous palaces of Europe.

"Some years after the war of 1870, Eugenie sold the palace to Baron Hirsch, who spent an enormous sum of money in redecorating and altering the place, buying the adjoining houses, so that when completed the mansion occupied the short street known as the Rue d'Elysee. For a time after Hirsch's death the French Government was in negotiation for its acquisition, but the price demanded was too great. It has now passed, along with its beautiful gardens, opening on to the Champs Elysees, into the possession of the widow of the great American railroad magnate, Collis P. Huntington." And so it has happened that the plain, simple California woman of pioneer days is now the owner of one of the historic palaces of Europe. Mrs. Huntington is [illegible] this summer, and is spending some time at Franzenbad, one of the famous European "cures."

ALL SYMPATHY, GENERAL SORROW.

The day's work is such a complex thing, its last analysis always so full of joy and sorrow. While we patiently weave our life lines we are called so often now to weave into them a tender sympathy for our neighbors, whose days are darkened by deep sorrow.

How often in the past two years has the angel called for our loved ones, and left our hearts desolate indeed!

Anything else we may retrieve, but just this; for they never come back—our loved ones—and there are only tender memories green in our hearts to keep us from utter loneliness.

There are the holidays we kept together, the birthdays dear to us, and all we may do is to place a little knot of flowers on a quiet grave. But there is human sympathy to bring its own sense of nearness in the heart of the keenest sorrow, and in full measure it has gone out to the Dargie home this week, to the faithful brother, who has lost one he held most dear.

For many years now, through girlhood days, and in later years, many of us have known Anne Dargie — have known her splendid enthusiasm, her generous heart, her magnificent loyalty to friends, her rare devotion to her family. One of the truest and most abiding gifts in all the world is family affection; it rings true through all life's changes, shining sweet and pure in the darkest hours.

And that was the dominant characteristic of Anne Dargie's life—a life which had in it many strong traits of character, most unusual. There was much self-reliance, a fearless expression of opinion, a courage of convictions, and beyond all, a love for her family which overshadowed everything else. Hers was a strong, vivid personality, and it was hard to believe that the brave heart was stilled forever, that in the beautiful flower-decked room, lay in an eternal sleep brilliant, fearless, generous-hearted Anne Dargie.

And for many a day her influence will be missed in the old-time home.

The nearness of human sympathy is almost the only comfort, when Death crosses the threshold, and every flower that found its way to the home on the lake was a tribute of remembrance to the dead sister, and it spoke a word of comfort to a lonely brother, that friends were profoundly sorry for the blow that had fallen, and that with courage and sympathy they would gladly help him through this bit of life's hard road.

For sympathy and affection for each other are all we sometimes have left, and they are a great deal.

There is hope always, an end is only a beginning, for it is given us:

"To sail beyond the sunset, and it may be we will touch the Happy Isles."

DEATH OF PAUL MILLER.

And again the funeral bells are ringing with slow and solemn tones, for Paul Miller, taken from us in the flower of his youth.

A great sadness has come upon the community since the news of the accident cast its own gloom on so many hearts.

For many there were who knew and loved Paul Miller.

The youngest of a large family—happy hearted always— to some of us he has never seemed to have grown up, we thought of him as still a child, and he was most dear to us.

He was one of the rare favorites in a large family connection, one of the most popular young men on either side of the bay. He was always cheerful, so optimistic, so courageous, so rare and sweet in disposition, so truly well bred, that many loved him, and the accident that took him from them brought a great sense of personal loss to his friends.

The old family home of the Millers has always stood for the best traditions of home life. The little children were always happy in its rare, sweet influences, and they have always loved to return to it, and to the dear mother, the guiding spirit of it all.

In a home like that with such a mother, men may achieve much, and Paul Miller's life was a success, a young life bright with rare promise.

He had graduated from college, and had taken up the day's work with energy and enthusiasm. He had made for himself a name in the world of work and among men of affairs.

The early passing of the bright young life, so happy, so successful, with so much to hope for, brings with it the deepest sadness to all those to whom he was most dear.

And one's heart goes out to Mrs. Miller, always so sympathetic and affectionate to others, to this dear mother, who mourns the loss of her youngest boy, the light of whose life went out so suddenly, leaving sadness and gloom in the dear old family home.

LAKE TAHOE ATTRACTS CROWDS.

The Lake Tahoe region continues to be of absorbing interest, and the midsummer days are wonderful ones in the high mountain regions.

The automobile roads to Tahoe are very safe and most interesting, going through some of the old mining regions of the state. One of the roads winds its way through Placerville, one of the oldest mining districts in California.

WEDDING WAS A BIG SURPRISE.

The marriage of Dr. Stratton and Mrs. Louise Bromwell Martin came as a great surprise to many friends of the Bromwell family. The wedding took place very quietly in the Alameda home of the bride, only Mrs. Brownell, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bromwell, and one or two other friends being present.

The Bromwells are among the best known of our Oakland families, and no one has more friends than Mrs. Bromwell, who is so loyal of heart, and so bright and cheerful always.

Mrs. Martin was among the best known of our young matrons—for the family of the late J. West Martin were very prominent in the social affairs of the country—so the wedding just announced has been of the greatest interest to many people.

One hears that Dr. Stratton is a gentleman of much distinction, a man who has traveled all over the world, and who comes of a good family, his brother being Secretary of State in Canada.

Dr. and Mrs. Stratton have gone abroad for a wedding trip, and they will spend the autumn months on the Continent.

UNIQUE AFFAIR AT "OGEE-DANKEE."

Mr. J. Witt Dougherty each year is the host at one of the most truly picturesque social gatherings of Alameda county.

Mr. Dougherty is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dougherty and the family home "Ogee-dankee" is about three miles from Pleasanton. The house is situated on a knoll 700 feet above the level of the surrounding country. Beautiful winding drives lead up to the picturesque home, which is surrounded by lovely grounds, in which are rare birds and classic fountains. There is also a most interesting deer park.

Each year Mr. Dougherty plans what he calls "A Night in Fairyland," and truly the whole affair carries out the fascinating name. The "Night in Fairyland" was given last Saturday evening, and a house party of thirty guests was entertained at the Dougherty home, and many guests were invited from all over the county.

The little inn at Pleasanton was full of guests from Oakland and San Francisco, and automobiles took them over to the Dougherty place.

It was an ideal evening, soft and balmy, with brilliant moonlight, as the beautiful grounds were wonderfully picturesque, with thousands of Japanese lanterns outlining the many walks, and adding a most gorgeous color scheme as they were suspended from the trees. The whole scene was brilliant—a fascinating and wonderful picture.

The details for the entertainment of the guests were planned in a most original manner, and the evening was most unique in its way.

A charming little open-air theater on the hillside afforded the setting for a novel, spectacular sketch called "Night in Fairyland," and in the audience were about 300 guests, who came in carriages and motorcars from all the country round.

The scene of the play was "An Enchanted Garden," and the characters were fairies, gnomes, and mortals.

The fairies were delightful little creatures, represented by children with life-like, butterfly wings.

A novel feature of the play was the flying ballet, or rather the flying gnome, by Witt Dougherty, and the living pictures of marble statuary were exceedingly well given.

Mr. Dougherty, who is most proficient in sleight of hand work, concluded the performance with the celebrated "Aerial Hindoo Mystery," the first time this illusion has ever been performed out of doors except in India.

After the performance in the picturesque theater a very elaborate supper was served, the many guests gathering in congenial parties, in tents erected upon the lawn.

A rustic open-air skating rink, just completed, afforded further entertainment for the many guests.

Mrs. Dougherty, with much gracious charm of manner, assisted her son in making his guests most welcome, and his sister, Mrs. Jabish Clemens also aided him in extending the hospitality of their home.

In the house party which spent the week end at the Dougherty place were Miss Inez Estudillo, Miss Grace San Lora, Miss Mary Sharon, Miss Eva Yorker, Miss Bertha Knox, Miss Margaret Knox, Miss McKeand, Miss Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Will Farley (Roy Wellman), the Misses Lewis Dougherty, Willard Barton, Clarence Sanborn, George Marwedel, Shirle Walker, Eugene Farnham, Dr. Smith of San Jose.

Among the San Francisco guests were the Messrs. Boyd, Williamson Pomeroy, Wood and Block.

CONGRATULATIONS ON ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. Hush and her daughter Florence, are planning to be at home Mondays for the future. Monday was formerly their day at home, and it has always been the Fruitvale day.

No cards have been sent out, but as many of their friends want to call upon the Hushes and personally wish happiness to the bride-elect that the family will keep Mondays as they used to do. Florence Hush has always been most popular with her young girl friends, for she has been most sincere in her friendships, and there is a most hearty wish for her future happiness very frankly expressed by the large circle of friends of the Hush family.

AMONG THE YOUNGER GIRLS

Many of the attractive younger girls are to go on with their studies for another year or two so many delightful affairs are planned for them by way of closing the summer holidays Mrs Jennie Stone Lee to entertain for her nieces Harriet and Muriel Stone who are going to spend the coming year in school in New York and Miss Eliza McMullen, a very charming girl is to be the hospitable hostess at a goodbye tea for them

Quite the best educational training one can have is a year abroad President Jordan has always said that one year abroad was equal to two of college life Other people in other lands bring wider horizons and one acquires more correct life measurements

Mr and Mrs Edward Hall are to take their attractive young daughter Miss Susie Hall abroad and they are planning to leave Oakland in October and to be gone a year

Mrs Hall was formerly Miss Tubbs one of the very charming bevy of sisters who have made some of the most delightful young matrons our city has known Mrs Hall will probably meet abroad her sister Mrs Henshaw

Hiram Hall Mrs Hall's eldest son who has been quite seriously ill this summer is greatly improved in health

Indeed it is hard for all these merry little maids who have been having such a good time in vacation days to return to work in earnest They have so much that it is hard to get down to a hard grind the only thing that counts in the days work But one hopes they will all be made to do it for it is so very easy to spoil the young girl of today, to change the dear little maiden whom everybody could love to the spoiled girl of whom nobody can possibly approve and whom nobody likes

So perhaps it is a good thing that they are all to be shut up for the winter within the walls of the old time school rooms

Mr Frederick Hall is to give a dance in honor of his daughter Myra which is to be in the nature of a farewell to Oakland this year A masque ball is to be given on Friday evening to which about a hundred young people have been invited

Mr Hall and his daughter will be assisted in entertaining the young people by Mr and Mrs Frank L Brown

Miss Katherine Brown is still confined to her home a sprained ankle having given her a great deal of trouble this year

And apropos of young people there was a general discussion the other day at a luncheon in regard to sets or cliques and the general opinion of the older people was that both are much to be regretted in the lives of young girls since they make for such narrow movements

One of the wisest matrons one could know whose daughters have friends everywhere remarked softly

I have always said to my daughters We cant all be rich but we can be kind

And the dear little sentence is so full of wisdom that a book might be written on the subject

COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE CONVENTION.

The most interesting event of early October is the annual convention of the Collegiate Alumnae which is to be held in San Francisco the first week in September. This is the first time this distinguished body of college women has ever come West and effort is being made by the branch to entertain the visitors delightfully and to maintain California's reputation for hospitality Some about fifty Eastern women have accepted the invitation and there doubtless will be many more Northern California branch of collegiate Alumnae numbers almost a hundred members so that there will be a considerable number of college women together Visitors are coming to all except the business sessions open on Saturday August 31 when Mrs Mills entertains all Eastern delegates and all the branch at luncheon at Mills College On Monday, August 31 at 2 o'clock Miss Ethel Moore will entertain all the Eastern delegates and many invited guests from the California chapter at a tug party The tug will take the visitors around the bay to the most interesting points At 4 o'clock the same afternoon Mrs Edward Dooring will entertain the Alumnae at tea at a restaurant in San Francisco's new Chinatown Tea will be served by dainty Chinese maids in native costume there will be Chinese merriments and those who possess will wear Chinese dress In the evening there will be a reception the Fairmont Hotel at which Mrs Phoebe Hearst Mrs Benjamin Ide Wheeler and Mrs David Starr Jordan will be among the receiving party

The dinners which follow are full of interesting business and social sessions Mrs Hall of Berkeley and the Century Club will entertain the delegates and local alumnae at teas Mrs J O Hayes will entertain them all at a luncheon at Eden Vale on the day after the Lick Observatory trip is made Stanford Day and University of California Day luncheon will be given by the universities Berkeley Day will also see an interesting session at the Greek theater The beautiful Fairmont Hotel will be headquarters and here most of the delegates will stay

EXPECTED HOME FROM ABROAD

Mr and Mrs Gilbert Curtis Mrs Lawson Adams and Lawson Adams Jr are expected home from Europe next week Mr and Mrs Curtis have remained a year and four months and Mr Adams and her son have been with them since last fall Mr and Mrs Curtiss have really seen continental Europe thoroughly, remaining several times to cities which interested them most They have not been to Egypt or to any of the far away countries but England France Germany Italy and Switzerland they have done quite thoroughly They have enjoyed their trip so much that it will probably not be long before we hear of them going again They will doubtless return laden with photographs, pretty clothes and antique bits for their homes Mrs Curtiss has written most enthusiastically of her travel and has evidently enjoyed every moment of the time

Among other European travelers just at present are Mr and Mrs Charles D Pierce now residents of Stockton, but for many years residents of Oakland They are completing a trip which was interrupted by the earthquake They had spent the winter in Cairo and had visited Constantinople and Greece and were in Italy at the time the news of the earthquake and conflagration reached them and they at once started for home This time they began in Northern Europe instead of on the Mediterranean They do not intend to return until the late fall and may decide to spend the winter abroad

Other European travelers are Mr. and Mrs Wallace Pond of Berkeley. This is also their second trip abroad. They went over with the Curtisses, stayed three months and returned, and are now back at fascinating places picking up dropped stitches of travel.

CALIFORNIAN HAS HONDURAS BANK

Alfred Moissant, Recently in Trouble in San Salvador, Secures Concession.

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, Aug. 15.—A dispatch received here from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, says that a banking concession has been granted Alfred Moissant, an American citizen, who resides here.

Alfred Moissant was once president of the National Bank of Salvador. There were several brothers of Moissant living in Salvador. They are Californians and are said to be wealthy. During the recent revolution Alfred and George Moissant were imprisoned by the government authorities charged with conniving with the revolutionists. Their property was seized. The attention of the State Department at Washington was called to the situation and steps were taken by it to secure their release. After lengthy diplomatic charges the brothers were released on bail and Salvador raised the embargo on their estate.

U. S. NOT INTERESTED IN TURKEY'S TROUBLES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Consul General Ernest L. Harris of Smyrna has communicated with the State Department concerning the settlement of an uprising at Nikarla in which sixty naturalized American citizens were implicated. During the uprising the naturalized American citizens obtained Turkish passports, which nullified their American citizenship. America's interest in the affair ended after the last of the natives had ceased to be Americans and the incident is regarded closed.

married in the presence of only relatives and intimate friends. Her invitations she wrote by hand. Her sister was her only attendant, and she had two little flower children. The wedding was white and yellow, and was very pretty, as the Wright house is charming in every way. In the fall Mrs. Kirkham Wright and her only other daughter are going abroad to spend the winter. A couple of years ago Mr. and Mrs. Wright and their two daughters spent an entire year abroad.

AT THE SPRINGS.

A number of people have been driven from Lake county this year on account of the heat. There has been quite a Chicago wave of heat and Wittier's Springs felt it especially.

Mrs. Sam Knight and a party of Burlingame people have just returned from an automobile trip to Aetna Springs, where it is warm, but where there is usually a breeze. They report the roads in Napa county excellent and the going good.

Mrs. Butters and her daughters have returned from Aetna Springs, but among the Oaklanders still there are Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Craft, who are passing a fortnight's vacation there.

BOHEMIAN CLUB CONCERT.

Most of the boxes and seats for the Bohemian Club concert on Friday of next week have already been subscribed. The concert is to be a matinee affair at the Van Ness Theater and is always a fashionable event.

VISITING IN CALIFORNIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Irwin of New York are visiting Mrs. Irwin's parents in Southern California. Before returning East they will visit San Francisco and while there will doubtless be extensively entertained, as it has been some years since they visited the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin have a charming apartment in New York, where they entertain many Californians. Mr. Irwin has made a great deal of money, and is one of the best known literary men in New York. Mr. Irwin made a special trip to the Bohemian Club jinks and took part in the Friday evening entertainment.

LEAVES FOR NEW YORK.

Joseph D. Redding, who has spent the summer in California, leaves for the East on Sunday. After a few days in New York he will go to Europe on business.

IN SOUTH AMERICA.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Lewis (Margaret Cameron), also prominent members of the New York literary colony, are having a most interesting and delightful trip through South America. When last heard from they were in Patagonia, and have now crossed the Andes. They may return to New York this way.

AT DEL MONTE.

Among the visitors at Del Monte is Mrs. William Howard, formerly of Menlo Park, but now of Boston. Mrs. Howard spent some weeks at the Fairmont, then a month at Paso Robles, and is now at Del Monte. She will spend some few days in San Francisco before she returns to New York, and while in the city will be the object of much entertaining, as she was one of the most prominent society women of California, and gave famous balls, which are still remembered.

Mrs. George T. Marye Jr. and Miss Lillie O'Connor were the guests over Sunday of Mrs. Henry T. Scott at Burlingame, while Mr. Marye was at the Bohemian Club jinks.

Mrs. William Crocker gave a delightful dance at the Burlingame Club last evening in honor of her young daughter, Ethel Mary, who will be a debutante in a season or two.

MISS HUSH'S ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement of Miss Florence Hush is still bringing forth delightful congratulations, and Mr. Bentley is being extensively felicitated on his good luck. Mr. Bentley was a classmate of Thomas Magee in college, and they have since been great friends. They were also members of the same fraternity.

An interesting reminiscence of Miss Florence Hush's babyhood is the way she came to be named, her name being, by the way, Florence Woods Hush, not Florence "Beale" as most of the papers have had it. Jean Hush, now Mrs. Wells, was the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Hush, and was named after her mother, whose maiden name was Florence Woods. When, two years after, the fourth daughter was born she looked so much more like her mother than did the third little girl that the name was transferred to the new baby, the fourth daughter receiving the name of Florence Woods, and the other child being christened "Jean Mary." Miss Florence Hush was always most devoted to her parents and has nursed her mother through several severe illnesses and her father through his last one. She had always said she would never marry, but her friends are delighted that she has changed her mind in that regard.

ASK COURT FOR TITLE TO ENTIRE OAKLAND WATERFRONT

Claim of Spanish Heirs Demands That All the Present Holders Be Ousted.

In the United States Circuit Court in San Francisco an effort will be made to wrest from the city of Oakland, the Southern Pacific Railway, the Western Pacific and all other holders all right and title to the Oakland waterfront.

The suit is in behalf of William Muir and thirteen other plaintiffs and will be presented by Edward F. Gelring. It is based on an old Spanish grant.

ASSERT MUTILATION.

In the complaint is charged that the records and maps of this district, duly filed according to the law of the period, have been mutilated and tampered with. Some of the papers, it is alleged, have been stolen from the depositaries of the State. Particular charges are made that the lines of the grant, as shown on the original map, were distorted in a later survey, so that the grant itself, which included all the Alameda water front out to deep water, was made to appear as if its westerly line boundary ended far inshore.

SURVEY DEMANDED.

The complaint asks that survey be made of the whole grant, and that this be considered by the court. And further it asks that all those holding land within the boundary of the old grant be deprived of all title of ownership to it and the territory given to the plaintiffs. Squatters' right is that under which the whole water front it said to be held, and the complaint asks that the title of all so holding lands be vacated.

NUMEROUS PLAINTIFFS.

The plaintiffs named in the suit are William Muir, a miner and surveyor, who is the chief agent in bringing the suit, and the Peralta heirs, who are Antonio Maria Peralta, a son of the original grantee; Arcadia Peralta, Crisanto Peralto, Sylvester Peralta, Joseph R. Garcia, Angelia Peralta de Garcia, Lucio Garcia, Francisco Peralta de Nino, Maria Josefa, C. Davidson, Pauline Ellin Peralta, J. J. Martinez and Rafael Martinez.

The defendants are legion. Those named principally are Horace W. Carpenter, The United States of America and the State of California. Beside these there are 227 others, whose claims to land in the grant have not yet been settled.

BACK NEARLY CENTURY.

The story begins in 1820. In that year Luis Peralta was granted the vast San Antonio grant by the Spanish King, and the records and maps of the land were filed with the Keeper of the Archives at Monterey. Until the acquisition of Alta California by the United States through the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in 1848 no further action was taken in the matter, save the confirmation of the grant in 1844 by Governor Michetorena. In 1849 Bennet Riley was appointed Military Governor of Alta California by the United States, and in that same year the influx of the squatters began. Governor Riley was appealed to by Peralta and his four sons, and he and the Alcalde of the district reported the encroachments of the settlers to the Government. No action came of it.

Then came the entry into the story of William Muir, a Placerville miner, who brings the present suit and who had much to do with the records of title to the grant in the early days.

CHARGE OF THEFT.

Finally the importunities of Peralta and his four sons brought about an investigation by the Legislature. One D. W. Murphy was sent to examine the records to the property and collect evidence as to the real owners. Murphy was given possession of maps and papers held by Peralta in 1851. These, Muir claims, were not returned by Murphy until he was compelled to restore them in 1868. The records at Monterey, where they had been filed, had disappeared, and Muir charges Carpentier was the thief.

The decree of the United States Supreme Court, made in 1853, affirming the title of the Peraltas to the land was sought by Muir in 1859, but it also had disappeared from record and the theft again is charged against an agent acting for the Squatters' League. And the notes of a survey of the grant made in 1852 also had gone, when sought in 1874.

Last year Andrew Steele got into communication with the surviving heirs to the estate and formed a contract with them to endeavor to secure their rights. From Steele, Muir secured all title to the property in January of this year.

HOSTESS ROBBED HIM, HE CLAIMS

Passed Evening With Woman and Then Has Her Arrested.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, August 15.—Claiming that he was robbed by Mrs. Minnie Riley, who lives at the South Park Hotel, with whom he had been spending the evening, Frank McCormick complained at the Southern station shortly after midnight and the woman was later arrested by Sergeant James McGovern and charged with grand larceny.

According to the story told by McCormick, who lives at 546 Third street, he has known the woman slightly for some time. Last night he spent the evening with her and after he had reached the street on his way home he discovered that $37 in bills was missing from his pockets.

He claims that it must have been taken from him by Mrs. Riley, but the police were unable to find any trace of it when the woman was placed under arrest.

MRS. 'DUCKSIE' DUNN IS RELEASED ON $300 BAIL

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Mrs. "Ducksie" Rosenbaum-Rogers-Dunn, wife of the former manager of the hotel Savoy, for whose arrest two warrants were sworn out by Daniel Deane, a local saloon man, appeared at police headquarters at 11 o'clock this morning and gave herself into custody. Mrs. Dunn is an extremely handsome woman of imposing presence, and the desk sergeant was taken back when she told him she had come to be arrested.

She was prepared, however, to furnish the $300 cash bail and was quickly released.

Two warrants were sworn out by Deane, who is the proprietor of a saloon at Powell and O'Farrell streets, charging the woman with battery and malicious mischief. He alleges she went to his place Tuesday night and smashed furniture, chandeliers and glasses and otherwise wrecked his place.

She in turn accuses Deane of interfering with her family affairs. The case will be aired in court Monday.

CALIFORNIA BANK IS $75,000 RICHER NOW

James P. Edoff, receiver of the California Bank, appeared in Judge Waste's court yesterday afternoon to secure permission of the court to accept certain compromises on accounts receivable which were about to be settled. The account of William Collins & Sons, operating the Bank of Ventura, Cal., which amounted to $171,243 at the time of the closing of the California Bank, was described to the court as being almost hopeless, and Receiver Edoff was granted permission to accept $75,000 in payment thereof. He stated that information had come to him that the private bank, whose peculations are said to have been the cause of the failure of the Oakland institution, was about to declare a dividend of $100,000 and retire from business. Edoff promptly retained legal assistance from Los Angeles and was able to set aside the dividend and secure $75,000 of the money for the creditors of the California Bank. As a result of this fortunate deal, Edoff stated yesterday that he thought the creditors and depositors of the institution would receive nearly 30 cents on the dollar for all moneys due them.

JAPANESE MERCHANT VICTIM OF THIEF

K. Fugita, a Japanese merchant of 305 Seventh street, reported to the police this morning that a thief broke into his rooms last night and stole a suit case valued at $8. The suit case contained wearing apparel and personal papers.

'SLEEP NO MORE' CRIES HIS WIFE

Tickles His Feet and Pulls His Hair, Alleges Husband.

Anselmo Flores, in an answer to his wife's suit for divorce, filed late yesterday afternoon, declares that Mrs. Flores spent the major portion of the night in tormenting him so that he could not sleep. Sometimes, declares Flores, this torture took the form of tickling his feet, pulling his hair and dragging the blankets from his sleeping form.

Flores also claims that his wife has threatened him with a butcher knife and tried to shoot him.

In order to maintain her supremacy at the head of their establishment Flores claims that she drove a hat pin through his ear.

Mrs. Rosalia Ybarra Packard, who is suing her husband for a divorce, yesterday asked the court for the custody of her baby, which has been forcibly taken from her home by Packard. The injured wife declares that her husband is not a fit person to have the custody of the infant and that he had struck her aged father when he secured possession of it.

OTHER DIVORCES FILED.

The following suits for divorce were filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday and today:

Anna M. Larson vs. Antone L. Larson, cruelty.

Celia M. Anglin vs. Harry E. Anglin, cruelty.

W. N. Thompson vs. Floy E. Thompson, desertion.

Rosina Alice Rose vs. Joseph Rose, extreme cruelty.

Jennie E. Castro vs. Joseph J. Castro, cruelty.

TOMMY BURNS AND KETCHEL MAY SPLIT OVER THE DIVISION OF THE MONEY

MUSTAIN AND WILLIS WILL MEET TONIGHT AT COLMA

Joe O'Connor Will Not Allow Tommy Burns to Dictate Terms for Meeting Between Ketchel and Champion.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

THE dish for the boxing fans tonight is the Joe Willis-Terry Mustain battle at Colma. Billy Roche is promoting the affair at the small pavilion and expects to handle a large crowd. The chief interest in the affair seems to center on the fact that Mustain may prove a good opponent for some of the coming heavy weights and that he may develop into a championship candidate. Willis is not given much chance with the bettors and public, as he has not shown the class that Mustain has and has failed to win from Bob Wood, who Mustain knocked out in two rounds.

The principal performance of Mustain is the fact that he forced Jack (Twin) Sullivan to walk out of the ring at Tonopah and deliberately quit. Terry is a very quiet, modest sort of a chap and if he wins tonight and is able to show the people that he has the right stuff in him, he will become very popular with the fans.

Willis is very confident that he can beat the highly touted wonder and as a display of this confidence he has bet $500 of his own cash as a side bet with Mustain.

Willis saw Mustain and Sullivan fight at Tonopah and says that he, or any other heavy weight could have beaten Sullivan that day and that he will win over Mustain sure. The contest should be a good one for both men have their future at stake and each will lend every effort to try and clean the other in clean cut style in order that he may get a chance with the winner of the Kaufman-Flynn fight at Los Angeles.

KETCHEL AND BURNS.

The shifting scenes of pugilism change with the same rapidity that the painted ones of the show house do when the curtain is dropped at the conclusion of an act, in which perhaps the villian has been waiting at the old mill and in five minutes is stalking the pavements of Broadway, New York, in search of the girl with the papers

A few short weeks ago all pugilism was agog over the proposed fight between Jack Johnson and Tommy Burns and no little uncomplimentary comment was hurled at the champion for his refusal to take the big dings on at a reasonable purse percentage.

Now that the shifting scenes have changed and Stanley Ketchel has been pushed into the place that Johnson held, Burns' advance agent has made it known that he is in a position to and will make a match for the champion with Ketchel if he wins from Joe Thomas.

When it comes to making the match, however, things may be very different for Manager Joe O'Connor realizes that he has a fighter in Ketchel who will be a drawing card and Burns insists on the big cut of the purse and other conditions that will all be favorable to him and not to the other fellow, there will be no match, for O'Connor told the writer the other evening that while he wanted to match his fighter against the champion and that nothing would please him more he would under no circumstances make the match if Burns was to get all the money.

THOMAS WILL REST.

Joe Thomas has been working for the past few days with greater energy than ever, as he wanted to give himself a final test before easing off in work prior to the easing off and resting up for the contest with Ketchel.

Trainer Molly McDonald was in Oakland last night and announced that he would guarantee on his reputation as a trainer that Joe Thomas would be a far and away better fighter for this contest with the champion than he was for the last two that he has had with him. Thomas will do little or no boxing from now to the day of the fight, as he is nursing a pair of sore lips and wants to enter the ring with every trifling detail in his make up perfect and ready for a gruelling battle.

The odds as announced by Tom Corbett last night were 10 to 4 and even money that Ketchel wins before the limit of twenty rounds. The betting has little effect on the ex-welter weight and he will enter the ring as confident of victory as Ketchel is. He is not buffaloed by the many nice things that has been said of Ketchel's fighting ability and the fans are almost sure of seeing a great battle when this pair hooks up for the fourth time.

MURPHY BEATEN BY WELSH.

Game Johnnie Murphy proved last night that he was a glutton for punishment and that he is a fighter worthy of consideration, but hardly proficient enough in the fine arts of the game to cope with such high-class fighters as Freddie Welsh.

Welsh handed the game little fellow a terrific walloping in the contest of twenty-five rounds at the Vernon Athletic Club, but was unable to bring him to the floor. From the tenth round on he gave the game San Francisco boy a bouncing for fair, but that was the limit of his abilities, for try as he would the game little fellow kept coming and in the end won the friendship of all by his great gameness.

Murphy fought his usual fight, coming back with fast rallies when least expected and surprising the fans and Welsh as well with the determined effort he made to win.

Welsh showed well with his wonderful cleverness and in the end he had hardly a mark that would show he had been through a hard battle.

Eddie Graney refereed the contest and of course gave satisfaction. The southern sports have not had an opportunity to see a high-class referee such as Graney and it must have been a surprise to them.

Oakland's Heavy Slugger Accomplishes Feat of Putting Ball Over Left Field Fence.

There is much excitement in local fandom today. Not because President Ed Walter has signed up "Ty" Cobb or Hans Wagner to the list of the local stars. But Van Haltren's bunch succeeded in annexing another of the series from Danny Long's aggregation—that's all. The score was 3 to 2.

Mr. Charles Eagan, better known to his baseball associates as "Truck," heavy sticker, amusement promoter and first baseman, was the bright particular star and, incidentally, the hero of yesterday's contest on the diamond marked green.

Mr. Perlino Skillman, he of the peculiar motions, who also generally appears on the local field of ball in a somewhat dirty layout, dished one up to the said Mr. Eagan, and Mr. Eagan proceeded to wallop it—and such a wallop—over the left field fence, a feat that has heretofore never been accomplished.

Now, that left field fence is high and it is also some distance from the home plate, and Mr. Eagan must have hit it an awful clout to send it sailing over that wall.

Everything favored Truck's drive; not even a slight breeze was blowing to hinder the spheroid on its upward—onward flight; the ball was just one of those kind that Eagan "eats." Truck caught the ball right where the wagon tongue is heaviest and he hit it such a clout—oh, my!

It was a beautiful drive and perhaps will not be duplicated for many a day to come. It cleared the fence by fully three or four feet. Of course, crabby Danny Long tried to detract some of the credit away from Eagan by saying that it "just barely got over." Nevertheless, it went over and it scored the run that beat Long's bunch; therefore, Danny is sore.

All this excitement occured in the eighth inning. Lucky for Mr. Skillman there was no one on the bases or the score would look worse. The game had run along 2 to 2 from the second stanza and then Mr. Eagan came along with his "big stick," walloped the ball over the fence and won the game for Van Haltren.

Putting on the soft pedal and chucking up his justly celebrated vapor float, the "silent" Mr. Loucks, a late recruit from the ranks of the State leaguers, held the hostiles down to six bingles and they were so well scattered that he defeated the Seals with ease—with the kind help of Mr. Eagan.

The other twirler, Mr. Skillman, was not so fortunate, the Oaks touching him for nine hits. He uses the vapor float, too, but was never known to do anything startling.

Captain Mohler sent Mr. Oahkosh Jones in to hurl them over in the final round, Oahkosh pitched a creditable inning, allowing no tallies and was pestled safely only once.

The Seals drew the first blood of the game in the opener. Mohler was safe on Houston's fumble and went to second on Hildebrand's sacrifice. The kid reached third on Zelder's out and scored on Melchoir's bingle to the right field fence.

The Oaks came along and tallied twice in the second. Miller led off with a two-bagger to right. Slattery bingled over first and Christian, running for Miller, scored, Slattery taking second on William's effort to get Christian at the plate. Stug went to third on Anderson's out and scored on Houston's bingle over second.

The Seals got their other in the same inning. Williams was given a pass and was sacrificed to second by Beck. Nick pilfered third and tallied on Berry's single to left.

No more tallying was done until Eagan made a homer in the eighth. The score:

Flanagan Again Breaks Record

QUEENSTOWN, Aug. 14.—John Flanagan, Irish-American Athletic Club, while giving an exhibition on the promenade quay here last night, threw the sixteen-pound hammer from a nine-foot circle for a distance of 181 feet 8 inches. This breaks all previous records, and particularly the one made by M. J. McGrath, New York Athletic Club, at the Gaelic athletic meeting held at Nemagh August 9.

WHAT CARTOONIST "MAC" SAW AT THE RELIANCE SCRAPS

IRWIN GIVEN DECISION OVER GAME JOE M'GURN

Contests at the Reliance Club Not Up to the Usual Standard---Preliminaries a Failure.

The boxing contests as provided by the management of the Reliance Athletic Club did not come up to expectation, and had it not been for the Irwin-McGurn contest and the Reagan-Dell bout, the night's sport would have been a mighty tame one.

It has been many months since the Reliance Club has not had a better show than the one they presented last night and the element of luck was displayed very strongly in this fact, for on paper the show looked to be a good one.

The winning of Toby Irwin seemed the surprise of the evening and to say that his showing pleased the crowd would be putting it light indeed. Toby has not been in the game for about a year and a half and it was hardly expected, even by his best friends, that he would be able to win from the husky McGurn, who last month put up such a rattling six round contest with Jack Clifford and received a draw at the end.

Irwin in the first few rounds seemed to lack the confidence and at all times he showed an inclination to hold on and stall. The first round was devoted to sparring and sizing each other up, the second warmed up a little better and the third found Irwin willing to take something of a chance, he evidently picking up confidence as the contest progressed.

In the fourth round McGurn made the first real dash of the contest. He left his corner with a rush and sailed right into Irwin as if he was about to clean him right then and there. Irwin steadied himself and sent back as much as he took but the aggressive tactics of the Irishman seemed to take some of Irwin's confidence and he stalled.

Just as the bell rang McGurn shot out his right hand with terrific force and copped Irwin on the jaw. It dazed the veteran and McGurn settled himself for a final punch, but the bell rang and he was deprived of the chance.

In the fifth the men kept right at one another and things began to look like McGurn when quick as a flash Irwin sent over the old time left hook and down went Mr. McGurn for the count.

From then on Irwin peppered his opponent severely and in the sixth round, when it was expected that McGurn would do the big rush act, it was Irwin who did the forcing and he was entitled to the decision the referee awarded him.

The best contest of the evening from a spectacular standpoint was the Jimmy Reagan-Harry Dell battle. These boys met at 122 pounds and there is few if any of the boys their weight who can beat them.

Dell was the shiftier boxer of the two and seemed to have the better punch, but Reagan had just two things that saved the day for him and will eventually make him one of the most popular fighters in the business.

He has aggressiveness and gameness to such an extent that he just don't know when he is beaten or when he should slow down for a rest. Last evening Dell hammered away at his jaw and ribs with force enough to put any fighter of that weight out, but not one second did Reagan give him and before the six rounds had been fought Dell was a very tired young man.

Reagan was also tired but he was coming all the time and in the end he had offset any advantage that Dell might have had in the earlier rounds.

Frankie Smith and Nick Harty met in the remaining six round contest and Smith was given the decision. Both men fought hard and tried to do some damage, but neither is a hard hitter and although both were very tired at the end of the bout neither had any very bad marks or bruises from the other's punches.

The three four round preliminaries were the most disappointing part of the program. Willie Shields and Willie Canole met in the first and while Canole showed a disposition to fight, Shields acted like a dog all the few minutes the contest lasted and deliberately laid down and was thrown out of the ring.

Otto Fritch and Kid Martin were then introduced and it was expected that the fans would see some fun. Martin made a dash for about a minute of the first round and because the Flying Dutchman didn't go down when he hit him a few times he also got cold feet and in the early part of the second round he laid down and would not get up.

Charlie Rochette, an old timer, was given a chance to get back into the game last evening, but he proved unequal to the task and a few taps on the chin laid him out.

One of the features of the evening's sport was the novelty bout staged by the management between two boys, one of 10 years and the other of 12 years. The contest was simply a friendly exhibition of the manly art and to say the least it was highly entertaining. Duncan Fitzgerald and Georgie McGuire were the contestants and their work would put to shame many of the older fighters who appeared in the ring afterwards. The bout proved as interesting as any of the bouts of the evening from a boxing standpoint.

Clifford and Irwin At Marysville

Barney Van Buskirk of Marysville has asked Toby Irwin to meet Jack Clifford in the northern city some time during the latter part of this month. Irwin last night accomplished what Clifford failed at when he received the verdict over tough Joe McGurn and he is of the opinion that he will be able to win from Clifford. About six years ago the same pair met in this city before the Acme Club. At that time Clifford was making his first start in California and the San Francisco boy was awarded the decision. Since that time Clifford has always been anxious to take another crack at his hated rival. Fred Compton of 46 San Pablo avenue, is on a hunt for other matches for Clifford and announces that he will be ready to sign his fighter with any fighter that the local promoters can select.

Campi Wins From Burke

The regular monthly exhibition of the Dreamland Athletic Club, held last night, produced a very attractive card, and furnished some of the best bouts seen outside of the professional ranks in a long time. Eight matches were scheduled, including aspiring amateurs of all weights and sizes, with Jack McAllister of the Shipmamat Indians the class of the evening. McAllister fought Joe Kragen four hard rounds for the decision, proving himself to be a very clever boxer, at 125 pounds. Tim Reagan and E. Jacona battled for four bloody rounds, Reagan going out in the last round.

Little Eddie Campi won from Eddie Burke at 105 pounds in four rounds, the officials calling for the extra round to make the decision. Roy Davis, a heavyweight, did not like the going and quit in the first round of his bout with Louis Rushing. Billy Warren knocked out Al Rudolph in two rounds, Gus Miller won from Johnny Burns at 125 pounds, Harry Lewis won from Nick Silvoy at 140 pounds, while the only dark feature of the evening, one Billy Long, a negro, located a soft spot on the mat in the second round of his bout with George Brambler, at 135 pounds. The darky gave a fine exhibition of long-distance running.

LUKE MARISCH WINS WITH LITTLE DICK

Dan Hoffman Ruled Off for Pulling in Gentleman's Race.

The sensational performances of the harness racers who are appearing at Emeryville this week seems to hold out and each day some new surprise is sprung. The finish of the three heats in the pacing event yesterday was the feature of the program and brought the spectators to their feet every time they entered the stretch.

In the first heat Rutherford & Young's fleet mare Delilah and Magladi whirled up the stretch together, with the others bunched, and, under the whips, only a length behind. It was anybody's race almost to the wire, but Delilah maintained her footing and landed first under the wire, beating Magladi by a neck.

John R. Conway, the favorite, did not strike his gait until the last heat. Then he caught Delilah at the three-quarter pole, and, under a relentless whipping from Chadbourne, beat the game mare, who was dog tired, by a length, with the field close up.

The betting multitude had a clamorous grievance in the first heat of the 2:20 consolation trot, when May T. broke just before reaching the wire, and came in ahead of Lady McKinney running. The judges held that the driver of May T. Twohig had made no effort to pull her back into her stride, and in accordance with rule 30 of the association, they gave the heat of Lady McKinney. This started an awful howling among the field players.

An unfortunate incident marred the last heat of the amateur drivers' race. Dan Hoffman, who was driving Mary K. in the first heat, apparently deliberately pulled up in the stretch, allowing Toppy to pass him. In an instant the crowd was around the judges' stand, shouting wildly. Hoffman explained later that he thought the race was a club affair and that it would be perfectly proper to pull up. His reputation as a horseman is good and he is broken-hearted over the affair.

The punishment inflicted by the judges was swift and extreme. Hoffman was ruled off for life. The bettors who had taken the field against Toppy hooted their delight when all bets were declared off. The action of Hoffman was nothing short of utter folly, and he has paid for his folly in full. The rules of harness racing are strict and iron clad.

Considering the track, some remarkable time was made. In the second heat of the pace 2.08 1-4 is going a little, and when 2:14 is trotted by the 2:30 class it looks as though the horses were trying to show some speed. Willmar won three heats of the 2:30 trot with ease and could have gone better.

Fillmore street rejoiced last night, because Luke McLuke Marisch's Little Dick got second place and a cup in the free-for-all pace with amateur drivers. Charlie Lecart's Charlie J. faded away in the second heat, casting as deep a shadow of gloom over North Beach as did the defeat of Ugo Micchell, the Italian champion, who got the hook from Ketchel. Lecart had considerable scud on his goat, and it will take a large spaghetti crop this year to make up for his losses. The trouble was that Lecari's horse was educated on an American track, and Lecari, in his excitement, urged him forward in the macaroni tongue. This confused the goat and he did a two-step.

Luke McLuke Marisch did not drive his own animal, owing to his excessive tonnage, for Luke is not as slender and sylphlike as he was when a lad. He put in a ringer, Victor Verlihac, late of Paree. Monsieur Verlihac had been teaching Little Dick French for the last week, so when he shouted at the horse, "Allons! Marchons! Fromage de Brie!" the horse was on and won the first heat.

AMATEUR NOTES

Tomorrow some exciting games may be looked for in the Alameda County League. All the teams have found out their weak points and have strengthened their teams with some of the best all players on the coast. At Freeman's Park in the afternoon the Oakland "J" Clubs play the Don Morris and a great crowd is expected, as intense rivalry exists between these clubs. Sparks and Rice will be the battery for the Tribunes and Zamlock and Colby for Don Morris. At Hayward the Haywards play the Cosmopolitans, at Fruitvale the Fruitvales play the Golden Sheafs, and at Alameda the Co-operative League grounds in the morning the Krieks and Haltons cross swords with the Maxwells.

The Oakland Tribune Newsboys' baseball team will play Fruitvale Stars next Sunday afternoon at East Twenty-seventh street, in Fruitvale. All newsboys are welcome.

The Hubs of Oakland were to play the Cubs last Sunday for the amateur championship. The Cubs failed to show up so the Hubs claim the championship by the score of 9 to 0.

The Hubs defeated the West Oakland Stars by the score of 4 to 3. It was a fast game. It was anybody's game up to the eighth inning when Willie Morgan got a three-bagger, and McGraw knocked out a long fly, which brought in the winning run for the Hubs. The Hubs would like to hear from any amateur team 21 years of age; no entry teams prefer. Address all challenges to Manager Silva, 920 Pine street, Oakland.

Reliance Athletic Club baseball team will cross bats with the Valley Boys' team tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Van der Nailens grounds near the Claremont Country Club.

Entries for Dog Show Close Tonight

The entry lists for the dog show to be held at the Hotel del Monte on August 28 and 29 will close this evening at the office of the Del Monte Kennel Club, 469 McAllister street. For the accommodation of those who have not entered their dogs, the office will remain open till midnight.

Slugging Beavers Win From Angels

LOS ANGELES, August 15.—Hard slugging by the Beavers trimmed Hosp easily today by a 5 to 1 score, and to the surprise of the fans the game was a fine one after the fierce struggle of Thursday. Johnson all over the left with two men on bases in the eighth and in the fifth Cooney slashed out a triple, Danzig a double and Ryan a single, and these were the innings in which the Beavers made their runs. Garrett heaved them over for Portland and was a hard proposition for the locals after the first inning, and he was given perfect support, Raftery's running catch of a liner to center being the fielding feature.

The locals got their only run on three singles and a fielder's choice.

Wright to Pitch in Morning Game

Deacon Wright will make his re-appearance on the slab at Oakland tomorrow morning and there is little or no doubt that he will receive a great reception as he has become a great favorite on this side of the bay and is one of the best of the coast pitchers. Deacon suffered a severe attack of the mumps which put him out of the running but he is pronounced in fine condition and ready to win more games for the Oaks. He will in all probability be opposed by Willis or Jones. In the afternoon Nelson will be given a chance.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, August 15.—Prices were on the down grade at the opening today, but the losses were confined to moderate fractions and selling was not on a large scale. Union Pacific, American Smelting and Amalgamated Copper lost ⅛.

Better factors took hold of the market immediately after the opening and marked up the leaders sharply in an effort to drive in the short interests. The high prices invited realizing and the entire market fell back to the opening level or below. Chicago, St. Paul & Minneapolis and Omaha preferred broke 7 points.

The market closed active with the rally in progress. Heavy selling of American Smelting was resumed in the second hour and sold down to 90¼, a loss of nearly 3 points. The break in this stock had a sympathetic effect on the general metal group, particularly for United States Steel, which dropped to 44.

The general railroad list, however, showed some resistance to the movement, losses there being confined to about ¼ to ½ point, although Union Pacific relapsed a point. In the final dealing there was a heavy covering movement all around.

MRS. CHARLES R. NAUERT IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

ALVARADO, Aug. 17.—This community was saddened Sunday morning to learn of the death of Mrs. Charles R. Nauert at the Alameda Sanatorium where she was operated upon a few days previous for a serious ailment.

Mrs. Nauert was born in San Francisco only half a century ago. She came to Alvarado with her parent when six weeks old and had since resided here. She was the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. August Heyer, pioneer residents of the county. By her noble character she endeared herself to all. Thirty years ago she was married to Charles R. Nauert. She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mildred B., Kathryn A., Asenna P., two sons, August B. and Henry P., all of this place, besides a brother, Charles W. Heyer, of San Francisco, and a brother-in-law, Oscar P. Nauert.

The funeral took place Tuesday at 2 o'clock, from the residence of her schoolmate and life-long friend, Mrs. D. C. Owen. Many friends attended the last sad rites. The many beautiful floral offerings showed to some extent how greatly the deceased was beloved. The Rev. Mr. Maar, formerly of Niles, conducted the services, and in a few well-chosen remarks told of the beautiful life the deceased had led. Miss Overmuller sang two favorite hymns. The pall-bearers were schoolday friends, John J. Liston, Edward Clawiter, August May, Hardy Vanderpeer, George M. Bernhard, James C. Symm. The remains were incinerated in Oakland.

SEEM TO FAVOR NEW FRANCHISE

Conference Committee Feels Key Route Should Get New Privilege.

BERKELEY, Aug. 15.—That the town trustees should grant the Key Route a franchise to operate a line on Sacramento street according to the provisions of the franchise submitted by the corporation to extend for the unexpired period of the company's present franchise was the resolution passed by the members of the conference committee last night. The former action taken by the committee to the effect that the franchise should either be granted as it stands or that it should be submitted to a vote of the people was rescinded.

The situation was discussed at some length, and it was the general opinion that the Key Route should pay for the concession, but the motion made by Winfield Schmidt was put to vote and carried. In the discussion, Schmidt said:

"We don't care how long the franchise lasts after we are dead. The question is, are we going to get the franchise while we are still alive?"

Robert Bush contended that it was not a question of the length of time the franchise would last, but what kind of a franchise the trustees can grant.

The debate grew a little heated, and during the argument G. B. Ocheltree said, "The Southern Pacific no longer owns its own roadbed. It has deeded it to the city."

"That was only to get out of paying for street work," was the retort of one of the members.

Louis Overstreet was in favor of postponing action until a communication had been sent to the Key Route asking the company to send a representative to the next meeting and explaining the franchise in detail to the members of the committee. The motion was voted down and Schmidt's original motion was carried.

In the morning the pulpit will be occupied by Robert Robertson and in the evening by Rev. Dr. C. E. Rich. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Epworth League at 6:45 p. m. At the evening services special music will be rendered by the Emanon Quartet, one of Oakland's well-known quartets, consisting of the following voices: Oscar W. Peterson, first tenor; Bert Raleigh, second tenor; Harry Richards, first bass; Robert Parker, second bass.

First Methodist Episcopal Church, G. W. White, D. D., pastor, Fourteenth and Clay streets—The pastor will preach: 11 a. m., "The Food for Man;" 7:30 p. m., "The Unpardonable Sin." At 9:45 a. m. the Sunday School will observe Rally Day by appropriate exercises, followed by the superintendent, Mr. Harry Morton. This closes the fourth year of Mr. Morton's superintendency of this school, and, by great painstaking and conscientious effort, he has developed an efficient school. Mr. Morton is thoroughly versed in Sunday School work. The recent general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Baltimore placed him in the general conference committee for Sunday Schools, and in so honoring him has thus made it possible for Mr. Morton to counsel with the leaders in this department of the church's activity.

Eighth-avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Eighth avenue and East Seventeenth street, Rev. Leon L. Loofbourow, minister.—11 a. m., worship, with sermon by the pastor on "A Father's Unanswered Prayer and Its Answer." At 7:30 o'clock, evening service. The beginning of a series of sermons on "Lessons From Some Declining Faiths," in which Unitarianism will be first considered. "Lessons From Some Declining Faiths" is the subject of a series of Sunday evening sermons at the Eighth-avenue Methodist Church by Rev. Leon L. Loofbourow, announced to begin tomorrow evening. The "Declining Faiths," which have either failed to grow or have actually lost ground, are: "Unitarianism," August 16; "Universalism," August 23, and the "Quakers," September 6. The causes of their alleged lack of vitality will be pointed out, as well as the part they have contributed toward the larger movements of evangelical belief.

In the evening he will preach the first of a short series of story sermons, giving expositions of some of Christ's parables of grace, the first being on "The Prodigal Daughter and the Two Debtors." The Wednesday night meetings will be devoted for some weeks to studies on fundamental doctrines of the Bible. A street meeting will be held on the corner of Fourteenth street and Twenty-third avenue at 6:45 Sunday evenings.

John Roach Stratton, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., will give a lecture entitled, "The South in Song and Story," at the First Baptist Church of San Francisco on Tuesday evening, August 18. Dr. Stratton is one of the most brilliant young men of the Maryland pulpit, and has become widely known in Chautauqua and lyceum circles as a charming and inspiring lecturer. ROOSEVELT TO STUMP FOR TAFT

President May Throw Himself Into the National Campaign When It Nears a Close.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—Close friends of President Roosevelt and Judge Taft have let drop some hint within the past day or two that the President is more than likely to get into the campaign in the most active manner close on to election time. That he will appear personally in some of the states where the fight assumes its most critical phases and talk directly to the people is regarded as one of the logical sequences of the decision of Judge Taft not to make any stumping tour.

Information from a reliable source is that Secretary of War Luke Wright, a Democrat, will take the stump for Taft in Tennessee, and that being the case, Tennessee, more than otherwise would be the case, will become interesting territory. In that event, it may mark a more serious attempt than any yet made to break up the "solid South" and secure a political alignment on a new basis.

Her Eyes Turned In

A lady complained to us that her eyes were turning in; that friends said she was developing a squint. She showed us her glasses and the cause of her alarm became manifest. Her glasses had been made by an inexpert person. The shape did not harmonize at all with the shape of her face, which was long and oval, while the glasses would better suit a face that was fat and round. They gave the eyes a side-ways look and so created the impression of squint.

New glasses were made of the proper shape. No squint now appears. Such is the value of our expert work.

DO YOU WANT $150.00?

If you know NORTHBRAE, the loveliest of Berkeley's residence tracts, you must have had your eye on the terrace which fronts on Shattuck Avenue, just three blocks from North Berkeley Station. It's level. It has an all-commanding view of the bay and hill and Golden Gate. In short, it's the finest bit of hill property around Berkeley.

We didn't want to offer this terrace—NORTHBRAE TERRACE—for sale until we had street cars running—they're running now every ten minutes:

Until we had enough street work done to show what it's like—you'll find it more than half done:

Until NORTHBRAE began to look settled—you can count fourteen new houses today.

So now NORTHBRAE TERRACE—the choicest portion of NORTHBRAE—is ready for sale.
